SINGER KISSED A GIRL OF SWEET SIXTEEN.

Harry Richards Was Very Free With His Wife's Young Friend —The Wife s Story.

It was developed in the trial of the divorce case of Mrs Florence Richards from Harry Richards the singer in Judge Ogden's court this morning that the love of the plaintiff for the defendant has died out and that the heart of the wife is forever locked against the husband

This was clearly shown in the answers of Mrs Richards to questions propounded by Judge Ogden, tending at once to show some kindnesses rendered by the husband and to ascertain whether or not the wife and mother, for the sake of her children would agree to condone certain ill treatment and forgive and forget

Mrs Richards, however, declared that it was too late Love had not only grown cold but had absolutely died in her heart

The first witness this morning was Mrs Florence Richards herself from whom Attorney Frick obtained information regarding a postal card received from her husband by the plaintiff when she was stopping under medical attendance, at the home of Mrs Hartmann in Fruitvale At the time Richards was in Vallejo Witness declared that she had destroyed the card but her memory served her to the effect that the card read as follows

Florence if you are sick your place is at home If you are not back home by tomorrow night I will take the two children and leave home You know what that means

Mrs Richards then testified in response to questions from Attorney Frick that before her marriage to Richards the defendant did not urse and abuse her

RICHARDS KISSED MISS FENNING

Reference was then made to Miss Fenning and the letters which had been written to that young woman by Mrs Richards and this occasioned a sensational statement by the witness

Miss Fenning was known by Mrs Richards, and her mother used to say that if I was jealous I would find fault with my husband because he used to kiss Miss Fenning, and I say now that I saw him kiss her He kissed her in my presence He used to kiss her and bite her and to wrestle with her as to tear her waist off her"

The presence of George D Cotton in plaintiff's room was then recalled and witness declared that at the time Mrs Cotton's sister was a resident in the house At the same time Cotton called on his sister

WOULD NOT BELIEVE RICHARDS.

If, said Attorney Frick, 'you believed that Richards would treat you properly and kindly and not abuse you would you be willing for the sake of your children, to go back and live with him?'

If I so believed I would ' was the answer witness placing emphasis on the word believed as had done her attorney before her

Why are you unwilling to go back to live with him?

Because I don t believe he would do so

Why?

Because of my past experience with him He promised to do this before

Did he keep his promise"

No

LOVE HATH FLOWN.

Then Judge Ogden took a hand in the questioning

But Mrs Richards your husband did some things for you He scrubbed the floor and washed the dishes when you were sick" he asked

But said the plaintiff there are some men who would do that I couldn t do it at that time I was sick '

That continued the Court showed a desire to keep up the family home and also a kindness that was worthy of appreciation wasn't it?

I don t believe that cursing me before his children was the right thing for a father

You would not go back to your husband under any consideration?

No sir I couldn t go back to him under any consideration but I would sacrifice everything for my children '

What particular thing do you object

JAPANESE BOMBARD COAST.

Made a Successful Raid on Commissary Train.

Twenty-five Miles of Coast Shelled By Warship.

NEWCHWANG, May 19—A courier of the Associated Press who arrived here shortly before midnight reports that the Japanese fleet was sighted from Tower Hill, ten miles north of Kai Chou, on Monday

The bombardment of the coast was extensive covering a distance of 25 miles

Only the Japanese marines, it was reported, were landed

This, however is not confirmed

The Japanese force marched several miles inland destroyed four miles of railroad and other property, captured a Russian commissary train and returned with a number of carts animals and native drivers The Japanese then re-embarked and left the vicinity of their landing place The transports shortly afterward could not be seen from Tower Hill but their course was southward It is believed now that the landing was a feint to cover movements elsewhere

RUSSIAN INFANTRY.

A regiment of Russian infantry returned here yesterday afternoon It was reported at ten o'clock last night that batteries of artillery will reach here today The Russians seem to be bewildered and disheartened and unable to form lasting plans Officers who left here (though their personal baggage remains at New Chwang) after bidding touching farewells to friends in New Chwang, returned a few hours later and began directing the work of building entrenchments a mile south of here But this task was abandoned in a few hours' It is believed here that the Russian authorities at Mukden are responsible for this vacillation

MILITARY ACTIVITY.

In addition to the recrudescence of military activity, the sailors are refitting the Russian gunboat Sivouch, which has been dismantled and loaded with wood and oil in order to destroy her, as well as two small river boats in the mud dock.

The Russian statements in regard to the situation are absolutely unreliable Many Japanese spies are here or in this neighborhood One spy has been executed It is believed he was an officer in the Japanese army

A correspondent of the Associated Press made an attempt to reach Kia Chou but was stopped by Russian scouts and compelled to return to New Chwang

The Russian civil authorities here are making desperate efforts to induce the Chinese guilds to take over the principal government of New Chwang, but the guilds do not show any disposition to do so

The Chinese here have ceased displaying the Russian flag.

WORK OF BANDITS.

Bandits continue capturing rich Chinese holding them captives until ransoms are paid The Chinese victims make no complaint, fearing assassination

New Chwang is filled with bandits armed with rapid fire pistols, concealed in their garments

There are unconfirmed reports that the Cossacks continue to harass the rear guard of the Japanese army advancing from the Yalu river.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE IS NOW FEARED.

Next Bombardment of Vladivostok Will Be a Bloody Affair— Latest War News.

ST PETERSBURG, May 19 —A copy of the Vladivostok Vostochny Vestinik, which has just reached this city, expresses fears that the next bombardment of the Japanese will be more effective than that of March 6th It says it is expected the enemy's ships will take up a position in Amur bay, now free from ice, in which they could not maneuver in March compelling them to fire from Usuri bay

The paper foresees great loss of life when the Japanese again shell Vladivostok.

The authorities there have ordered hundreds of non-combatants to leave the city Voicing the views of experts, the Vostochny Vestnik says it does not believe a land attack will have a chance of success

The paper also reports that 2,500 Japanese who disembarked at Plaksin bay, in the northeast of Korea, in the beginning of March, intending to proceed to Mao Shan turned back because of the hardships they suffered along the route

SKIRMISHES ARE TAKING PLACE.

TOKIO May 19 4 30 p m—It is unofficially reported here that small skirmishes are taking place south of Kin Chau on the Liao Tung peninsula

The Japanese line extends from Chicaton to Chulishan across a ridge of hills a mile and a half north of Kin Chau It completely dominates that town which can be taken in half a day when the Japanese are ready to do so

Kin Chau is seven or eight thousand meters north of the narrowest part of the peninsula, and forty miles north of Port Arthur The Japanese line, therefore is less than 45 miles from Port Arthur

JAPANESE NOT YET IN NEWCHWANG.

ST PETERSBURG May 19 (5 50 p m)—The Admiralty denies that it has been officially advised of the Japanese occupation of Newchang

Instructions were published to blow up the Sivouch, the Russian gunboat there, before the last Russians retired As soon as this is accomplished the Russian commander will report to the authorities here The fact that nothing has been received convinces the Admiralty that a small Russian force is still at Newchwang

JAPANESE BULLETS ARE NOT DEADLY.

LIAO YANG Wednesday May 18—(Delayed in transmission)—The Russian army surgeons are praising the Japanese bullets They inflict a small, clear wound though they possess good stopping effect Captain Vorobreff was struck by twenty bullets during the fighting at the Yalu river but he survived and is expected to recover Several gunners of the heroic Third battery are convalescent though their intestines were pierced The last train load of men wounded at the Yalu has gone north after the soldiers received decorations personally from Gen Kuropatkin

DESCRIPTION OF LOST VESSEL.

TOKIO, May 19—The cruiser Kasuga mentioned in the dispatch, was purchased from Argentine before the outbreak of hostilities with Russia

The cruiser Yoshino was a steel vessel of 4180 tons displacement, she was 360 feet long 46 feet wide and had a draught of 17 feet Her indicated horse power was 15 000 and her speed was 23 knots She was built in 1892 She carried four six-inch eight 4.7 inch guns and 24 three-pounders She had five torpedo tubes and a complement of 300 men

The Hatsuz was a steel battleship of 15 000 tons displacement She was 400 feet long 76 feet wide and had a draught of 27 feet Her indicated horse power was 16 300 she was built in 1899 and her speed was 19 knots She was armed with four 12 inch and fourteen 6-inch guns as well as 32 guns of smaller calibre She had four torpedo tubes, and a complement of 741 men

RUSSIANS ARE COVERING RETREAT.

SEOUL, Korea May 19 11 15 a m—At the Japanese headquarters it is said that Colonel Kinoshita's infantry battalion which is pursuing the Russians arrived at Kai Chyong May 15 Small parties scouted the country ahead and reported that the Russians were covering their retreat by destroying bridges and blocking the passes in the hills

FEAR THE CHINESE.

Russia is Anxious for Them to Be Strictly Neutral.

ST PETERSBURG May 19 1 40 p m—It is learned that Foreign Minister Lamsdorff in interviews yesterday with representatives of the great powers laid particular emphasis upon the attitude of the Chinese He referred to the necessity for all the governments continuing the policy of constantly impressing Peking with the advisability of preserving strict neutrality

The Foreign Minister desires that China shall not only be officially neutral, but that there shall be no interference on the part of her people, and he believes the latter point can be assured if violations of the imperial proclamations are swiftly punished. The Minister has not forgotten the suspiciousness of the imperial government in 1900 which permitted the Boxer movement to spread until it implicated the court and required international intervention

The views of the Russian Foreign Minister are regarded as significant, especially as they follow the renewed assurances of the Chinese Minister

The military expert of the Novoe Vremya expresses this morning an opinion which is slowly crystallizing here that the attitude of the Chinese authorities and the activity of Chinese bandits are tantamount to a state of war

It is the worst kind of war,' says the expert since it is cloaked by hypocritical neutrality Russia is now warring in a hostile country

KOREANS HAD NO USE FOR RUSSIANS.

WASHINGTON May 19—Minister Allen cables the State department from Seoul today as follows

'The Korean government by an imperial decree issued last night has annulled all treaties and agreements with the Russian government This annulment comprises the Yalu timber concessions."

RICH MEN KIDNAPED BY BOLD BANDITS.

American Citizen and His Son Are Carried From Their Home.

WASHINGTON May 19—The State Department has received the following telegram from United States Consul Gummere dated at Tangier today

Mr Perdicaris, a prominent American citizen long a resident of Tangier, and rich and well known, and his stepson, Mr Varley, a British subject were carried off Mr. Harris last year The try house three miles from Tangier by a large band of native brigands, headed by Raisully, the bandit who carried off Mr Harris last year. The Perdicaris house was broken into about half-past eight last evening while the family were in the drawing room and the two men were carried away"

Mr Gummere and the British minister are acting with energy in the matter They have sent a special carrier to the court to inform the Sultan's deputy to comply with all requests they make in this matter and to insist that the terms demanded by Raisully shall be granted in order to obtain the release of the captives

Except for the difference of sex, the incident reported by Mr Gummere compares in some respects with the case of Miss Ellen M Stone, who was kidnaped by Bulgarian bandits some time ago The demand made upon the Sultan by Mr Gummere that he pay the ransom demanded in this last case is said to be in accordance with Oriental customs Payment is necessary probably to save the lives of the captives and it is not doubted that the Sultan will find some means afterward to capture the brigands and recover the sum paid over

Acting Secretary Loomis was in consultation with Captain Winslow of the Navigation Bureau today respecting the dispatch of a United States warship to Tangier to back up the Consul's demand There are a number of British warships within a few hours' sailing, and it is understood that as Mr Gummere is co-operating with the British Consul there will be no hesitation on the part of the British government in hurrying a British warship to the scene

Although the large fleet of American warships is en route to European waters, there is not a single United States war vessel there now.

CROSSED WIRES IN COURT.

TELEPHONE GIRL'S ROMANCE IS PUNCTURED WITH LIVELY SCENES.

Hot things went over the wires this morning in Police Judge Smith's court during the hearing of the charge of disturbing the peace preferred by Miss May Morrissey, the telephone girl, against Mrs. Lucy Moore, who recently divorced her husband, William Moore, a clerk in the store of Keller and Fitzgerald. Before the story, which hinges about the love of two women for the clerk, was completely told there were several crossed wires and even Judge Smith acting in the capacity of a lineman was unable to straighten them out.

It appears from the testimony that as a part of the romance between Mr. Moore and the young "Hello girl," it was necessary for them on their Sunday walks to parade before the house of the divorced wife. Mrs. Moore says that this proceeding did not interest her sufficiently even to arouse her curiosity as to the name of the woman with whom her former husband was keeping company. On the witness stand Mrs. Moore said that she knew that her name was May but did not know her last name until she read it in the papers.

The whole trouble it seems originated through the fact that Mr. Moore had taken the two young children which are in the custody of his former wife and to have paid a visit to the home of his prospective mother-in-law. On his return he was accompanied by Miss Morrissey. There was a meeting between seven and eight persons interested in the matter. They met on the corner of Twentieth avenue and Fifteenth street. Just what occurred at the meeting is hard to get from the records of the case. Every one agrees that there was a scene. Mr. Moore and Miss Morrissey say that it was a very lurid scene, in which the former wife talked herself into a frenzy and forgot that certain language is reserved for sailors, troopers and stage villains.

Mrs. Moore indignantly denies that she swore at the young woman who had captured her former husband's fancy. She says that she never said a word to her. She admits that she did give Mr. Moore a curtain lecture about taking the children away and having his prospective mother-in-law cross question them as to how their mother used them.

Mrs. Moore was supported in her testimony by that of Nina Murdock and Mrs. Bessie Murdock, her mother.

Nina Murdock and Prosecuting Attorney Leach did not get along well together. Their tilts afforded opportunity for repartee of the stinging kind in which the young lady did not always come out second best.

In summing up the case Judge Smith said he was not willing to believe that a woman would swear in the streets. He was also willing to believe that Miss Morrissey would testify to that fact unless she was sure of it. The court's mind was in such a fix that it could not be made up so the case was continued until tomorrow for a decision.

HELD FOR HEAVY RANSOM.

AN AMERICAN CITIZEN CARRIED AWAY BY BANDITS.

TANGIER, Morocco, May 19—An American citizen named P. Perdicaris and his stepson, a British subject, were carried off by the well-known bandit, Raisuli and his followers, last night, and will doubtless be held for a heavy ransom. The captives were staying at Perdicaris' summer residence, only three miles from Tangier, when the bandits attacked and captured them.

Perdicaris is of Greek origin, but is a naturalized citizen of the United States. He is very wealthy and has lived in Tangier for years. He married an English woman, whose son is his companion in captivity.

Foreigners are much excited by this bold raid, so near Tangier, and attribute it to the supineness of the government in failing to punish the bandits who last year captured Walter B. Harris, the correspondent in Morocco of the London Times, and their failure to deal with general lawlessness.

TO DUMP BAD MILK.

NEW YORK, May 19.—With the object of stopping the sale of all milk in this city that is not absolutely pure, inspectors from the Health Department have been sent to the various milk depots with orders to dump into the gutter any milk found not properly cooled and any that showed that it had been watered. Samples also are being taken for analysis and the Health Commissioner has declared emphatically that New York City shall have pure milk this summer even if he is compelled to dump wagonloads into the sewers.

NICHOLAS HAS BIRTHDAY.

ST. PETERSBURG IN FESTAL ATTIRE TO HONOR THE EMPEROR.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 19 (12:50 p. m.)—St. Petersburg had a holiday today in honor of the birthday of Emperor Nicholas, who was born May 18, 1868. The city was ablaze with color, the principal streets were gaily decorated, the street cars, displaying flags, moved slowly on the Nevsky and other thoroughfares, the ships moored in the sparkling Neva were dressed and the churches were thronged during the morning with officials and other persons offering prayers for the Emperor and the success of the Russian arms in the Far East.

At noon the dingy fortress on the banks of the Neva fired an imperial salute of 121 guns.

In previous years it had been customary for the Emperor to hold a grand reception at the Winter Palace, but the absence of his majesty made it impossible today. The joy of many officials was increased by promotion and decorations, which were gazetted in the Official Messenger this morning.

Peasants, in holiday attire, were grouped at the street corners, studying General Kuropatkin's bulletins reporting that the Japanese are falling back, but the news apparently did not occasion satisfaction because it was known, even to the lowliest, that Kuropatkin will not strike, and that some time must elapse before Russia can make her might felt. Therefore, no impatience was displayed at the failure of the Russian commander-in-chief to follow up his advantage. There was only muttered approval of the policy of waiting until the reinforcements, to which the Emperor was bidding farewell, reached Manchuria.

INDIANS FIGHT TO DEATH.

PORTLAND, Or., May 19.—A special to the Oregonian from John Day, Or., says:

Some Indians from the Columbia river who are roaming over the hills and along the streams of Grant county became intoxicated at Dayville. They then engaged in an altercation which ended in a hot fight, during which some of the braves received severe punishment. These two met later on the bridge across the John Day river and engaged in a duel, using their spurs as weapons. The duel ended with the killing of one of the braves. This sobered the rest of the Indians, and binding the dead warrior on a horse, together with that of a baby which had been killed in the fight, they disappeared across the mountains in the direction of the Columbia river.

BEATS THE RECORD.

NEW YORK, May 19.—A piece of slate pencil, two and a half inches long and sharpened to a needle-like point, has been removed from the right hand of Rosalie Layko, a 9-year-old Brooklyn school girl. The pencil had been working its way about the child's body since January last, when she swallowed it while at play. Efforts to remove it from her stomach then proved of no avail and for several weeks she has complained of pains in the side and shoulder. Finally the object moved down through her arm and caused the hand to swell. The doctors were greatly astonished upon applying the lancet and encountering the hard piece of slate. They say there is no record of so large a substance passing through the human body in a similar manner.

MAYOR TO ENFORCE THE LAW.

HE ORDERS THE POLICE TO ARREST THE SCAVENGERS.

Mayor Olney this morning took a hand in enforcing the garbage ordinance and ordered the Police Department to arrest all scavengers who were engaged either in dumping or gathering garbage. The raid of the police on the scavengers began this afternoon.

In speaking of the matter this morning the Mayor said:

"The ordinance is on the statute books. As Mayor of the city it is my duty to see that all ordinances are enforced. The spirit of the ordinance and its letter are being violated every day. It cannot go on this way for all time. If there is any way to enforce the ordinance I will see that it is done."

MAY NOT WAIT FOR JOHN L. HOWARD.

Mayor Warren Olney has not definitely committed himself to the idea that he will reserve Councilman Howard's seat in the City Council for him indefinitely. In an interview with a TRIBUNE reporter this morning he said:

"I do not know whether I will keep the position open for the period of ninety days or not. It will depend on circumstances. I anticipate a reply from Mr. Howard soon. Of course the city needs Mr. Howard but the position of councilman cannot remain unoccupied indefinitely."

When asked if he had any available names other than Howard's before him the Mayor admitted that he had but refused to divulge them.

KOREA ANNULS RUSS CONCESSIONS.

SEOUL, May 19 (1 p. m.)—The Korean Government has annulled the Russian Yalu and Tumen rivers timber concessions, granted in 1896. The Russian companies interested were backed by M. Bezobrazoff, the friend of Viceroy Alexieff and reputed moving spirit of the Russian war party, and many Russian noblemen. There have been frequent differences between Russian semi-official concerns and the private Japanese lumbermen, which constituted one of the annoyances which indirectly led to the war. Korea, in severing diplomatic relations with St. Petersburg, has not felt bound to respect Russian commercial contracts.

It was announced May 6 from Tokio that Korean had recalled her minister at St. Petersburg.

WANTS SHOWING ON ESTATE.

SUIT BASED ON MEXICAN LOAN BEGUN AFTER YEARS OF EFFORT.

The hearing of a suit based upon a loan of money to the Mexican government by Augustine Alviso in the early history of this State was begun this morning before Judge Melvin. After years of effort Jose Alviso, one of the sons of Augustine Alviso, has got Judge James A. Waymire, W. T. Baggett and Valentine Alviso, his brother, into court to make a showing of the monies collected by them from the Mexican government on account of this loan.

When the elder Alviso died, he made a will in which he bequeathed this claim, amounting to $200,000, to his five children. Jose claims that through the representation of one Frederick Hall, he was induced to sign an assignment of his interest in the claim to Judge Waymire, Valentine Alviso and Hall for the purpose of collecting this money. Afterwards he was told that he had made a complete assignment of all of his interest in the claim and while he states a large amount of money has been collected on the claim he has never been given one cent.

Jose Alviso took the stand in his own behalf this morning and proceeded to tell the story of his alleged wrongs. Waymire, Baggett and Valentine Alviso were all present in court and listening to the proceedings. Jose Alviso began his story with the signing of his assignment to his interest to the executors of his father's estate. By stipulation it was admitted that Augustine Alviso died and left a will in which he divided this claim among his five children. It was admitted that he had a claim. The witness then went on to state:

"I was working in the store of Spring & Co. in San Jose in 1880 when one day Frederick Hall came to me and said, 'Guadalupe, I have an assignment here I want you to sign. I knew Hall very well, and I asked him what he wanted me to sign it for. He said, 'Well, I come from your brother in San Francisco. He and Judge Waymire and I are going to Mexico to collect the money and when we come back will have plenty of it. Your brother told me to give you $25 on account, but I will give you $100 and make you a present of it.'

"But I did not like to sign such a paper and I told Mr. Spring about it, and he said that he would not sign it either. Well, Hall said that he was in a hurry and wanted to go back to San Francisco on the 2 o'clock train. So I said I would telegraph my brother and ask him if it was all right to sign the paper. I sent the message, and in about an hour I received one in return, signed by my brother, saying it was all right. Hall told me while we were waiting that he had been the attorney for Maximillian when he was going to be shot and that he had lots of influence in Mexico, so I signed the paper and he gave me the $100.

"After that he had been informed by the elder Castro that his brother had told Castro that Jose had sold his interest in the Mexican claim for $100. I have tried many times to get a settlement from my brother, but he would never answer any of my letters. I did not make a demand on Waymire or Baggett because I did not know them. One time my brother sent a detective after me and he told me to go and see my brother in Judge Hamilton's office on California street in San Francisco and that he would do the right thing by me. I went there and my brother told me he would set me up in business and asked me not to bring any more suits against him. He gave me $45 and I signed the agreement, but he has never done anything for me."

Attorney Langan, when asked for the original assignment, stated that it was on file with the department of State at Washington with the other papers. That the estate had collected $16,000 of the claim.

At the end of the recital of Alviso's story in regard to the collection of the money the defense immediately began to put in its case and showed the witness the following receipt:

"Received of Valentine Alviso, the sum of $45 in full satisfaction for all claims of every nature and description from the year one until the present time, including all claims in regard to Mexico or anything else and I agree never to annoy him or use his name in any manner whatsoever to his injury or disgrace. Witness, N. Hamilton, Guadalupe Alviso, C. N. Burnham. Dated June 10, 1889."

In regard to the peculiarity of the receipt, Attorney Langan said at the adjournment of court:

"This receipt was made out in this way to try to keep Alviso from hounding his brother for money. For twenty years he has made this old claim the ground for raising money. As a matter of fact, all the Alvisos sold their claims to Waymire, Baggett and Hall. These three men bought up all the claims for about $3000. This is including money paid Castro and others for their claims as well. In return they received $16,000 worth of Mexican bonds which were valued at twenty-three cents and brought them in about $3000. They are losers at the present time to the extent of about $1200. The executors have no money belonging to the estate and Alviso has got every cent coming to him. I understand, however, that he shows these papers and things to credulous people, who advance him money with which to fight the case and this is how he makes his living."

In regard to the receipt shown to him on the stand Alviso said that this was a part of the general scheme to defraud him.

NO BREAK IN DEADLOCK.

Yates Men Will Not Desert Their Chief.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 19.—Delegates to the State Republican Convention expected no nomination for Governor today. Conferences held during the night had for their purposes a combination to nominate Hamlin. This movement is said to have the influence of Senator Cullom back of it, and to have had the moral support of Speaker Cannon. The combination contemplated the union of the Deneen-Hamlin-Sherman forces with accessions from Lowden's country delegates sufficient to nominate. The most strenuous efforts, however, apparently failed to secure enough delegates to assure the success of the plan.

As a result it was thought improbable that a shift to Hamlin would occur today.

The Yates people decided merely to "stand pat" until the opposition exhausted all efforts at combinations.

When the convention assembled Congressman Fuller offered a resolution providing that if the convention did not make a nomination for Governor at the present session, the roll call on Governor be suspended and that the convention proceed to nominate the remainder of the ticket.

Yates called his men about him and in the confusion shouted all vote No!" A roll call was demanded by nearly all of the Cook County delegates and a large proportion of the Yates delegates. The resolution was lost—yeas 301, nays, 1,201.

The forty-eighth ballot resulted:

Yates, 486; Lowden, 397½; Deneen, 432 Hamlin, 112½; Warner, 41, Sherman, 2, Pierce, 31.

At noon, after the fiftieth ineffectual ballot, no material change had been taken, recess was had until 5 o'clock.

LARGE LOSS BY FIRE.

Sierra Lumber Company's Big Mill is Burning.

CHICO, May 19.—The Sierra Lumber Company's immense new planing mill; sash and door box factory, office and several million feet of lumber stored in the yard, together with a half a dozen adjacent residences, are burning and there is little hope of saving any of the property. The fire started from an unknown cause in one of the lumber piles near the main lumber yard sheds.

A heavy north wind caused it to spread immediately before the company's firemen could get water. The city firemen could do but little owing to the scarcity of mains. The immense shed used for storing selected stock in one end of which is the general office of the company, was the first to be consumed.

At the same time the fire swept northward in the face of the wind to several million feet of rough lumber and from there to the mill, so that now the entire plant is on fire. Immediately south of the plant, which occupied about four blocks, are several residences, some of which are already ablaze and others must soon be enveloped.

The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss at present is certain to reach fully $80,000.

NOTED OUTLAW IS ARRESTED.

HE IS CAPTURED BY OFFICERS AND LANDED IN JAIL.

CULBERTSON, Mont., May 19.—Kid Trailer, a member of the famous Jones gang of outlaws, has been taken prisoner by a deputy sheriff and is here in jail. Trailer is the man whom Jones rescued from deputies about three months ago. Jones was shot shortly afterward in a pitched battle.

"Dutch" Henry, now leader of the Jones gang, was pursued yesterday by Canadian mounted police, who caught him on their side of the line, but he escaped in a running fight. The police believe Henry was wounded.

GIVEN FIRST FINAL DECREE

The first final decree of divorce since the going into effect of the present law requiring the lapse of a year between the granting of an interlocutory decree and the entering of the final decree was signed today by Judge Henry A. Melvin in the case of Jacob B. Woods against Alice Woods on the ground of wilful desertion.

On May 7 of last year Woods was granted an interlocutory decree and given the custody of Edward and Margaret Woods, the children. Today that decree was made final and the judgment entered.

Suit for divorce was begun today by J. De Young against Alice M. De Young on the ground of desertion. For more than a year last past it is alleged that the wife has refused to live with her husband.

NO NEWS OF LOSS.

Russians Have Not Heard of Sinking of Battleships.

ST PETERSBURG, May 19, 5:50 p. m.—The Admiralty has no confirmation of the reported destruction of the Japanese battleships Skikishima and Fuji.

"I have always held the belief," said one of the most prominent Admirals of the general staff, "that the Skikishima would pay for the Petropavlovsk."

The report of the sinking of the two Japanese ships might be well founded, as the official press dispatches from Liao Yang report the Japanese fleet as cruising off Port Arthur daily at a distance of eight miles or less, in order to throw shells into the fortress.

After the Petropavlovsk was destroyed the Russians attempted the same plan as the Japanese, that of sending out torpedo-boats at night to place floating mines where the enemy had appeared a few hours before. Mines were especially planted off the Liau Ti Shan promontory, which was a favorite point from which the Japanese armorclads bombarded Port Arthur.

RICHARDS DIVORCE CASE.

to on his part?"

"I think his treatment of the children during the past year and his treatment of me is enough. Why, he has followed me on the streets and made faces at me."

"You have lost your love for him?"

"Yes, I have no love for him now."

Attorney Frick then brought out the statement that at the time, plaintiff met Geo. D. Cotton at the home of Mrs. Detallace, she was accompanied thither by plaintiff's mother. No reference was made to this circumstance in the story of the meeting brought out in cross-examination of witness.

Then Attorney Frick started out to enable witness to show that all the references made by her in her letter of April 7, 1901 to Annie Fenning, to gentlemen acquaintances, was simply of a jocular character. This enabled counsel for defendant to question witness on the subject.

"What did you mean?" asked Attorney Walsh of defendant's counsel, "when you said in that letter that you 'fancied' Cotton?'

"Just what I said," was the reply.

"With respect to Mr. De Witt, what did you mean when you said 'I blow him?'"

"I meant, I guess, that I simply made use of him—to roll my baby buggy. It was in jocular style of one girl to another."

VERY OLD GIRL AT SIXTEEN.

"Miss Fenning was a girl sixteen years of age, wasn't she?"

"She was a very old girl. Girls are older sometimes than their years."

"Miss Fenning was then only three years older than your eldest daughter is now, wasn't she?"

"Yes."

"And you were a woman and a mother 31 years of age?"

"Yes."

"That was advice you were giving a young girl to 'blow' a fellow, wasn't it?"

"I don't know."

"Did that mean that you got money from him?"

"There was no man in the house that spent money on me."

"Did he spend money on you?"

"No; I would simply make him roll the baby buggy."

"What did you mean by the statement, 'wouldn't you and I blow the fellows?'"

"I don't know."

"Did you mean that you would have them 'roll the baby carriage?'"

"She was very anxious to meet those fellows and she came here to do so."

"Who is the gentleman whom you promised her to meet?"

"I don't know."

YOUNG AT THIRTY-SEVEN.

"Who is the man who used to stamp your letter?"

"He is a young fellow named Aldrich."

"A young fellow, 37 years of age?" asked Pulcifer, with emphasis on "young" and "37."

"Yes. Sometimes when I could not go out Mr. Aldrich would ask me if I had any letters to mail and he would put stamps on them."

Witness then was asked why she used the term "brat" with reference to a child in the house if she had tenderness and love for children.

Plaintiff replied that her friends, last night, when they saw this epithet credited to her, expressed surprise that she had used the word. She had, perhaps, used it in pique because Mrs. Wells disliked witness' little son and was always speaking of another child in the house as "dearie" and "sweetie."

"What did you mean," asked Mr. Walsh, "when in writing of another boarder, a Mr. Dias, you said 'He's mine?'"

"I don't know."

LIKE DIAS' SISTER.

"What do you mean by saying that 'I look like his sister, you know?'"

"Mr. Dias used to compare me to his sister. His sister had two children and my devotion to my children pleased him, and he used to say that I looked like his sister."

"You sent him a Christmas present, didn't you?"

"He remembered the children at Christmas, and they sent him a pincushion."

ANATOMY IN PINCUSHIONS.

"That pincushion," said Attorney Walsh, "was in the shape of a female limb, wasn't it?"

"Yes."

"And had worked on it a heart and an anchor?"

"There was nothing on the limb except a buckle. But I will tell about that heart if you want to hear it."

"Don't want to hear it," said Attorney Frick.

"You have said there was no heart there, and that settles it," said Mr. Pulcifer.

LILAC MAN FORGOTTEN.

"Who was the man who sent you that bunch of lilacs that you speak of in the letter?" asked Mr. Walsh.

"I don't remember," said the witness.

"When you said you were 'struck on his diamond pin,' what did you mean? That you wanted it?" inquired Walsh.

"I don't think I wanted it," was the reply.

SIMPLY IN JOCULAR MOOD.

All these up-to-date commonplaces witness finally declared in response to questions by Mr. Frick, were absolutely jocular and did not mean that witness would have acted improperly with any of the individuals who had inspired the reference.

O'NEILL ALSO "ROSY."

Peter O'Neill, a stalwart who said he was a foreman in the yards of the Southern Pacific Railroad in West Oakland, and whose ruddy cheeks would warrant the characterization of "rosy," as applied by the plaintiff to George D. Cotton, was a witness also. In his work, he said, he was responsible to the said Cotton. He testified that he had resided at the Wells place, 1466 Peralta street, when plaintiff and defendant made that place their home. He had frequently seen Mrs. Richards there and knew that she was kind and attentive to her children.

Recess.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

D. B. Calderwood, a locomotive engineer, was called out of order. He testified that about May 6 1903, he was near the door of the room of Mrs. Robertson, who resided in the same house at Ninth and Center streets where the Richards family resided. Richards was going down stairs. Mrs. Roberts asked her husband where he was going and Richards replied that he was going out and when he returned he would see her. Witness heard no profane language on Richards' part. Richards, however, seemed hurt over something but witness could not tell what it was.

FATHER TESTIFIES.

Charles A. Fawcett, father of the plaintiff, was also called out of order. He testified that he is an employe of the government. Richards and his wife resided at witness' home a great part of their married life. "Not only in my house," said Fawcett, "but also in their own home, I have often heard Richards, when his wife was playing an accompaniment to his singing, say to her, '——'"

"Did she do anything to provoke him?"

"Never did."

"Was he mild-mannered or in ill temper when he used those words?"

"It was bad temper."

"Was it in a low, loud tone of voice?"

"It was louder than the ordinary tone of voice."

"Do you remember the circumstances where that language was used elsewhere than at the piano?"

"It was so general that I could not recall all the circumstances leading up to it. Many a time, in my presence, he has shown his ill temper. Ill words were frequently directed against his wife. On a few occasions, where his children had been away for some time and did not arrive when he thought they should, he did not display that affection for them that a father should. He did not kiss them. I never saw a mother more devoted to her children than Mrs. Richards was."

Witness then told of the visit to the Tivoli, when it is alleged Richards deserted his associates.

"Richards," he said, "seemed to have gone home by another street. He was home when we got there. Somebody else from inside opened the door. I went into the house."

"Did you swear at or curse the little boy?"

"Never."

Witness recalled Richards' calling at witness' house and taking the son with him.

CLOVEN FOOT.

"Richards said he wanted to see Florence. I went back to ask Mrs. Richards if she wanted to see him. She said that she did not want to see him. Then he said, 'I want my children.' I went and told Mrs. Richards and asked her if she wanted to let him have the children. She said, 'No,' I told Richards, what Mrs. Richards said and I said 'you are doing wrong in trying to take these two girls, one of them blooming into womanhood.' I said, 'you are unkind to think about taking them away and, in that you have shown the cloven foot.'"

TO JUMP INTO BAY.

Witness then detailed Richards' last attempt to induce him to have Mrs. Richards return to live with defendant.

"I went to Mrs. Richards and told her what Richards had said. She said to me, 'You have forced me to go back to him two times and if you force me to go back this time, I will jump into the bay.'"

Witness was then cross-questioned by Attorney Walsh. He refused to answer the questions of counsel in the affirmative, which sought to show that while Richards used harsh language at times, still he regained his composure in a short time and that he was quick to get over his anger.

WOULD STRIKE HIS FATHER.

"He was not a man who would brood and was moody, was he?" asked Mr. Walsh.

"Yes, he was a moody man—a man who would strike his father."

Mr. Walsh objected to the voluntary comment of the witness and said at the same time.

"He never struck you did he?"

"No, he didn't, but he attempted to. That was in the home on Caledonia street and at Vallejo, too."

"That was when you drew a razor on him, was it?"

"Yes, I had a razor, I believe, I was showing at the time. I saw him attempt to strike an old man 85 years of age, old Mr. Felton."

Witness then declared that he had seen his daughter in tears, as a consequence of Richards' treatment, as many as fifty times.

WOULD USE THE RAZOR.

"You did not use the razor on him?" asked Mr. Walsh.

"No, I didn't," answered Fawcett.

"Would you have used it?"

"If he had struck me—oh, yes!"

Witness declared that he had never seen Richards show affection for his wife. He had never seen gush or affection in him. Plaintiff had been failing physically during the past seven, eight or nine years, more particularly during the last two years. Mrs. Richards' tears were always caused by the defendant's harsh conduct. Witness declared that he was not a very profane man.

"About the hardest word that I use," continued the witness, "is 'damn.'"

Mr. Walsh sought to get witness to admit that he had, before the Court Commissioner, used hard language toward his daughter.

Mr. Frick objected on the ground that witness was entitled to be shown the affidavit made before the Commissioner.

The deposition before the Commissioner was handed to witness and from it Mr. Walsh read the following answer purported to have been made by Mr. Fawcett.

"I will not deny I sometimes used strong language, but she was not accustomed to such treatment as that of Richards."

Witness said he would explain, but Mr. Frick said he did not want any explanation and none accordingly was given.

RICHARDS' ASSISTANCE.

Witness continuing said that during the past year Richards had not contributed one nickel to the support of the children, and during the past three years not a dollar for doctor's fees had been paid by him, and he had not paid for their dresses, either. Fawcett denied that he had collected $75 insurance for Richards and applied $50 of that amount to the purchase of a suit of clothes for himself. He declared that he always bought his own clothes.

MRS. RICHARDS.

Mrs. Richards then resumed the stand for cross-examination by Mr. Pulcifer. She stated that the first letter she received from Richards after he had gone East told her to go back to her —— —— of a mother.

"You were friendly with George D. Cotton at the time your husband went East, weren't you?"

"Yes."

COTTON'S VISITS.

"You were still friendly to him when you resided in Vallejo?"

"Yes."

"He visited you at Vallejo?"

"He visited the family at the invitation of my father."

"Did you ever invite him to Vallejo?"

"He had a general invitation to visit there."

"How often did he visit you there?"

"Three times."

"Did you meet him at the boat?"

"I believe so."

"Were you alone?"

"Yes."

"Did he kiss you?"

"No."

"Did you shake hands with him?"

"I don't know."

"You walked with him to the home of your parents?"

"Yes."

"Did he take your arm?"

"It was day time."

"Did he stay all night at your parents' home?"

"No."

"Did he come in the morning or afternoon?"

"In the morning and in the afternoon train he went away. That was the only time he could get away."

ALL DAY IN THE PARLOR.

"What were you doing all day?"

"Sat in the parlor."

"How many hours?"

"All the time. Father and mother were there."

"What day was it?"

"Sunday."

"What time did he come?"

"Nine-thirty."

"What time did he leave?"

"At 4.30."

"Did you take time for lunch?"

"We had dinner."

"Did you accompany him to the boat?"

"Yes, with the two children."

"Did he bring you any presents?"

"No, sir."

"Did he bring you any candy?"

CANDY FOR THE CHILDREN.

"He brought a box of candy to the children."

"Who next did you see Mr. Cotton?"

"The next time he called."

"When?"

"I don't remember."

"How long after?"

"Several weeks. It was before Christmas. I think it was in November."

"Do you remember the day of the week?"

"I think it was Sunday."

"Did he come in the morning?"

"Yes."

"You sat in the parlor all day?"

"Except when I was getting dinner."

"Did you meet him at the train?"

"No."

"Were your parents there?"

"The second time, they were in and out all the time."

"How about the third time?"

"Same conditions."

"Your parents were present all the time?"

"Yes."

"Did you accompany him to the boat?"

"I don't think I did."

"Did you see Cotton each time?"

"Yes."

ABOUT LOVE.

"Did Mr. Cotton tell you he loved you?"

"No."

"Did he offer to marry you?"

"No."

"Did he say to you that he stood ready to marry you at any time you should get a divorce?"

"No."

"Did Cotton, before Christmas, bring you any presents?"

BROUGHT PAIR OF GLOVES.

"He brought a pair of gloves for the girls, a pair of gloves for me some toys for the boy and some cigars for my father."

"Do you remember hearing your mother say to your father, as she saw Cotton approaching the house, 'Here comes your next son-in-law?'"

"No, sir."

"You didn't hear that? You never heard that statement?"

"I don't believe my mother ever said such a thing."

"How often did you come to Oakland?"

"Not very often."

"How long after your leaving Mrs. Wells', at 1161 Peralta street, to go to Vallejo did you come to Oakland?"

"I think it was about the 14th of October."

"That is the first time you came to Oakland?"

"Yes."

"How long did you remain in Oakland then?"

"I came in the morning and went back in the afternoon."

"Did you see Mr. Cotton?"

"No."

"Did you ever meet Mr. Cotton at the home of Mrs. Retallac in East Oakland?"

"I would like to make an explanation."

"Go ahead," exclaimed Attorney Frick.

COTTON GIVES A JOB.

"Mrs. Retallac," replied the witness, "had a young lady, a companion, with her in her home. The girl is engaged to a young man, but I can't recall his name. Mrs. Retallac was very anxious for me to try to get a position for the young man. The young man wanted to get a position on the railroad. I was asked if I would use my influence with Mr. Cotton to get him on the railroad. I rang up Mr. Cotton to call there. I wrote a letter of introduction for the young man. He got a job."

"How did Mrs. Retallac know that you had influence with Cotton?"

Objection to this question was sustained.

"When was the first time you met Cotton at the home of Mrs. Retallac?" continued Mr. Pulcifer.

"The day I left for Vallejo."

DAY AFTER HUSBAND LEFT.

"That was the day after your husband had left for the East?"

"Yes."

"When had you seen Mrs. Retallac before?"

"A week or two before."

"Did you arrange for meeting Cotton at Mrs. Retallac's home?"

"I rang him up."

"Couldn't you talk over the phone and try and get a job for the young man in that way?"

"Well, I didn't."

"Why was it necessary to see Cotton personally?"

"Well, I could talk to him better than I could over the telephone."

WHY MEET AT RETALLAC'S?

"Why was it necessary to see him at the home of Mrs. Retallac?"

"I don't know."

"Cotton was residing at Retallac's?"

"No."

"Was it because you didn't want him to call at Mrs. Wells'?"

"Because he was not on good terms with Mrs. Wells."

"Did Mrs. Retallac meet him on this occasion?"

"I believe I met him."

"What room were you in?"

"The parlor."

"Who arrived first?"

"Mr. Cotton."

"Did you ring the bell when you approached the house?"

"I believe I walked in to the kitchen to see Mrs. Retallac."

"What did she say?"

"I believe she said: 'Cotton was in the front room.'"

"Had you previously met Cotton there?"

"No."

"How many times did you meet Cotton there?"

"I think she called there two times."

"To talk about this boy?"

"I think so."

"Were these meetings prearranged?"

"No."

"How much time intervened between the meetings?"

"I don't remember."

"Didn't Mr. Cotton, at the first meeting, agree to give employment to the young man?"

"No, he said he would see what he could do."

"How long afterward did the young man get a job?"

"I don't know."

NEVER AT NIGHT.

"Did you ever meet Cotton at Mrs. Retallac's at night?"

"No."

"The second time you met him, how long was the meeting?"

"I don't know."

"An hour?"

"I don't know."

"How long on the third occasion?"

"Half an hour."

"Was Mrs. Retallac present?"

"She was in the next room—there was only a portiere between."

"Where was Mrs. Retallac living at that time?"

"On Eleventh street."

NUMBER OF DENIALS.

The cross-examination then turned upon the slumber methods and apartments of the Richards family, the witness denying that she had ever occupied a couch or room apart from her husband, when her husband was at home, without the consent of her spouse. One night, she did take up quarters in a strange room in the house in which they were stopping. This she did to frighten her husband into believing that she had left Richards, however found her out and shared the apartment with her afterward.

Mrs. Richards denied that she had ever told anyone that she had lost a letter which had been written to her by Cotton; also that she had told anybody that she had received letters from Cotton; also that in her presence anybody had been told that Cotton stood ready to marry her and take her children if she should secure a divorce.

These and other denials were made to questions upon alleged information, said to be in possession of the defendant, whose counsel declared that they will put witnesses on the stand who will show ground work for the queries.

This closed the cross-examination of Mrs. Richards and, at Attorney Frick's request, the re-direct testimony was set over till the next session of court.

SECOND IN SERIES FOR SEATTLE.

BAT KEEFE HARD BUT C. HALL KEEPS THE TIGERS GUESSING.

Seattle took the second game of the series with Tacoma with a score of 8 to 4. The Siwashes hit off Keefe for a total of fourteen hits and landed whenever they pleased. C. Hall pitched a good game and Tacoma had a guess bag ready at his every delivery. Both Hannivan and Mohler made home runs. A little flurry was caused by a decision, in which C. Hall was called out for cutting the second cushion and causing Seattle to lose two runs. Seattle scattered hits and the Tigers had an uphill fight to solve C. Hall.

AMATEUR SHOW NEXT TUESDAY.

The West Oakland Club has prepared a strong amateur card for next Tuesday night and reports from the various training quarters of all the contestants go to show that the men are all getting into condition, as if they were world's professional champions. There will be some hot fights.

The bouts in which the lads from San Francisco are to take part will be particularly interesting from the fact that each of the four principals have met and defeated their opponents before in contests before the Lincoln Club. The Oakland boxers who will appear have all been seen before and have always given a good account of themselves.

The main bout between Root and Land, will be a fast one. Both men are training hard and will be in condition to go twice the number of rounds. "Professor" Musa Bryan will act as master of ceremonies.

THE REAL CAUSE.

The Ancient Scalp-Fever Theory Exploded.

At one time dandruff was attributed to the result of a feverish condition of the scalp, which threw off the dried cuticle in scales.

Professor Unna, Hamburg, Germany, noted authority on skin diseases, explodes this theory and says that dandruff is a germ disease.

This germ is really responsible for the dandruff and for so many bald heads. It can be cured if it is gone about in the right way. The right way, of course, and the only way, is to kill the germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this, and permits the hair to grow luxuriantly, just as nature intended it should.

SEALS SHUT OUT PORTLAND.

WHALEN'S PITCHING TOO STRONG FOR NORTHERNERS—GAME OF COSTLY ERRORS.

The Seals started the ball rolling in the first inning of their game with Portland and brought home four rubbers. Druhot pitched for Portland and was hit hard in the first inning, though he came to afterwards and steadied down. Whalen pitched a strong game, giving but four base hits and passing but two. He struck out four men. The Portland twirlers could not find Whalen. This and a bunch of costly errors by Portland let San Francisco total six and Portland was shut out. Leahy made the only error for the Seals. Portland had five to account for.

The score:

RUNS AND HITS BY INNINGS.

STREET RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.

FORTY-FIRST LINE NEARLY COMPLETED—SIXTEENTH STREET LINE RECONSTRUCTION.

The ferry line of the Key Route, on Forty-first street, is rapidly approaching completion. It will be through to the connection with the Piedmont avenue line early in June. When it is completed, a depot will be established at the junction on Piedmont avenue and passengers carried from there across the ferry for one fare.

A new line is projected by the Transit Company from the terminus of the Forty-first street line to tap Linda Vista Terrace and Vernon Heights, thus giving the residents of those districts access to the new ferry by a short cut. A survey of the proposed line is now being made, and as soon as it is finished a franchise will be applied for. A covered depot will be erected between Piedmont avenue and Howe street, so that passengers can transfer from the connecting lines to the ferry trains under shelter during rainy weather. Residents of Piedmont, Linda Vista and Vernon Heights have to pay a fare of five cents to the point of connection with the ferry line.

Cars are no longer run on the Sixteenth street line, which is now being torn up for reconstruction.

A permanent roadbed will be laid and heavy street rails put down. The guage will be changed to standard to be uniform with the system. A turn will be made into the Market street line, on which cars are now running, which will enable cars to run to Emeryville from Broadway via Sixteenth, Market and Adeline streets. When the Sixteenth street line is reconstructed the cars will run down Broadway via San Pablo avenue, cutting Grove, Fourteenth and Washington streets out of the run. At present the Eighth street cars reach the Sixteenth street depot by going down Fourteenth street. When the line on West Eighth street is standardized it will be connected with the East Eighth street line, thus making a through run without change from West Oakland to Upper Fruitvale.

The new standard guage cars for the Haywards line have arrived, and as soon as the franchise dispute in East Oakland can be settled the Transit Company intends to commence the work of reconstructing and changing to standard guage the road to Haywards. It will be relaid with heavy steel rails.

Probably the Alameda line, which makes a complete circuit through Alameda and East Oakland, via Twelfth and Washington streets, will be the last of the main lines of the Transit system to be reconstructed and standardized. The Berkeley end of the Grove street line still has the old narrow guage cars and tracks, necessitating transfer at Lorin, but the travel on that section is not heavy enough to warrant any immediate change. Anyhow the roadbed on that piece of line is in better condition than most of the old narrow guage lines, some of which are extremely dilapidated. The heavy cars and fast runs on the Haywards line render reconstruction of that road imperatively necessary in the near future.

ENGINEERS WILL TAKE A TRIP.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY ELECTS OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR.

LOS ANGELES, May 19.—The sixth biennial convention of Locomotive Engineers continues to be occupied with reports, division resolutions and matters of minor importance. According to the official report on membership, there are at present 46,000 members of the order in good standing. Preparations are being made for the delegates together with their families to visit Catalina Island in a body Friday. On account of the large number desiring to take this trip, difficulty has been encountered in securing sufficient steamer accommodations and a later excursion will probably be arraged for those who do not go on this trip.

The officers of the Volunteer Relief Association of the Women's Auxiliary have been re-elected with one exception. They are as follow: President, Mrs. George Wilson, Allegheny, Pa.; general secretary and treasurer, Mrs. M. L. Robertson, Toledo Ohio; trustees, Mrs. Chester Durnell, Fort Wayne; Mrs. F. G. Booner, Las Vegas, N. M.; Mrs. M. Dorsey of Springfield. The latter is the new member of the board of trustees.

MARRIED MEN TO TAKE WIVES.

C. J. Heseman and his employes and their families and every man, woman and child connected with the establishment in any capacity—delivery clerks, wagon drivers, wrappers, salesmen, buyers, and proprietors—will have a jolly, old-fashioned basket picnic on May 29.

Camp Taylor will undoubtedly be selected as the spot to enjoy the day and a joyous outing among the trees and an occasion to be remembered will be on tap.

All the single clerks and employes have the choice of a friend—their best girl or girls, but each and every married employe must take along his own wife.

It is the type of play that people want and they are showing their appreciation by turning out in large numbers. In fact every night this week shows many more people at Ye Liberty than for some time. The Neill company has caught the fancy of the theatre-goers evidently.

SENSIBLE WAY TO CURE CATARRH

Hyomei Medicates Air You Breathe and Kills All Catarrhal Germs—Costs Nothing Unless It Cures.

Do not take medicines into the stomach to kill catarrhal germs in the head and throat. Air alone can reach these germs. Medicated with Hyomei and breathed through the neat inhaler that comes with every outfit, the air goes to the most remote air cells of the head, throat and lungs, and completely destroys the disease germs. Hyomei will cure. When you get a Hyomei outfit, Osgood Brothers will give you a signed receipt agreeing to refund the money in case it does not cure catarrh and other disease of the respiratory organs. This is the strongest evidence that they can offer as to their faith in Hyomei—to pay for it themselves in case it does not cure.

BERT THOMSON'S GREAT WORK.

OAKLAND AUTO DEMONSTRATOR ASTOUNDS PARK EXAMINER.

It is an exceptional case when a young man who has been confined to the sick room for years establishes a record in athletics or sport, one that has not been equalled and in fact conceded by all who are conversant with the performance as little short of marvelous. This has been done by Herbert M. Thomson, a resident of Oakland, an expert automobile demonstrator.

Tuesday young Thomson stood an examination for his efficiency in handling an automobile. The examination took place at Golden Gate park. The qualifications necessary to obtain a permit and certificate to handle an automobile are very strict but in every test Thomson performed the requirements with much honor and compliment from the examining officers.

Aside from the figure eight which all are required to do and which Thomson executed with wonderful accuracy and speed, his record of stopping the machine was the principal feat accredited to him. Speeding at 35 miles an hour and without the least warning a dummy representing a human being was suddenly thrown in front of the fast moving automobile. The young man stopped the machine going at this terrible speed and avoided contact with the dummy. In fact the automobile came to a standstill in the most careful and well-balanced manner that any machine driver has ever accomplished.

When asked about the matter of handling his machine in such an expert manner, Thomson said:

"It's all in knowing how to handle the machine and also in knowing your machine. An auto is like a human being. It requires a slight touch of the life lever to get a response. I have made a careful study of every part of all styles of automobiles and know each thoroughly. My experience in canoeing has taught me to have a steady eye and be ready for everything that may occur unexpectedly."

Thomson was very reluctant in giving his views and is very modest and unassuming over his recent high standard made in his automobile examination. He takes it as a matter of course. He studied to know all the ins and outs of the structural parts of machines of all kinds and is now reaping the honors that are due him.

A short history of the life of Thompson is very interesting and little short of remarkable from the fact that from an almost hopeless invalid the young man fought a brave fight through his pains and sufferings and finally recovered the health and strength that had been so undermined.

As soon as it was seen that Thomson was on the road to recovery his parents enabled him to seek outdoor recreation and bought him a canoe which he used on Lake Merritt and became an adept in its management. As soon as he was able to benefit by this outdoor exercise marked improvement was shown and daily his strength and health returned.

About this time his tastes began to develop toward machinery. In his leisure hours when his studies were completed the young man devoted all his attention to the study and application of mechanics. As his genius developed notice was taken of his ability and he entered the services of the National Automobile Company situated on Golden Gate avenue in San Francisco. Here his studies brought him into prominence among the machine men of the day. A short time ago Thomson entered the employ of Fred Jacobs as demonstrator for the Rambler Automobile.

As a result of his examination and the excellent and praiseworthy handling of the machine the young man has gained a reputation to be proud of and has received the congratulations of automobilists in general. It is said by those who witnessed Thomson's work that never has a man handled a machine more perfectly than did he last Tuesday.

Thomson was born in 1883 and is now 21 years of age. After receiving private tutelage he entered St. Mary's College and was one of its most popular lemars. He left the college in 1899 to pursue his mechanical studies.

The family residence is at 101 Thirteenth street overlooking the waters of Lake Merritt.

After passing his examination, Thomson with a party of enthusiastic automobilists drove to San Jose for the afternoon's outing. He will return tomorrow. It is said that young Thomson is one of the most expert demonstrators in the State.

TO REORGANIZE FINANCES.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Reorganization of the finances of the United States Realty and Construction Company have been agreed to by the directors and will be announced shortly, says the Herald. It is understood the financial end of the company will be thoroughly overhauled and the capital greatly reduced, some estimates placing the new figure at $30,000,000. The capital of the present company is $60,000,000.

A new company will be formed and a change in name is also contemplated. Instead of a big issue of preferred stock it is said that there will be a form of income or debenture bonds issued.

A QUESTIONABLE AFFAIR.

CHICAGO, May 19.—An endless chain scheme to collect several million twenty-five cent pieces for the alleged benefit of the chorus girls of the "Mr. Bluebeard, Jr.," Company of Iroquois fire memory, has appeared in Chicago on its way from New York. It met with instant denunciation from Assistant Chief of Police Schuettler.

"The girls need no aid," he said. "Persons induced to contribute in the endless chain are the victims of a suspicious and unauthorized appeal."

The letter which reached Chicago was one of the twenty-second series of the contemplated chain of fifty.

SMALL RIOT ON THE DIAMOND.

A DECISION OF UMPIRE JEUNNESS RILES THE OAKLAND-ANGEL GAME.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

CLUBS.	Played.	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Oakland	48	28	20	.583
Seattle	45	26	19	.578
Tacoma	47	27	20	.574
Los Angeles	50	28	22	.560
San Francisco	48	21	27	.438
Portland	44	11	33	.250

Another scene of so-called umpiring resulted in yesterday's game between the Oakland and Los Angeles teams. A repetition of poor and unbaseball-like decisions flitted among the Angels, and the Commuters committed on the result of the scores. Mr. Jeuness will not do is the sentiment of the fans and his job is made for another. He has been the storm center around which congregate heated Angels and cripples, who want to know what kind of a game is being played anyway. In yesterday's game Los Angeles, after a particularly rank decision in the sixth left the field and wouldn't play in Pete's yard any more. Jim Morley descended among the Angels in his chariot of fire and said, "Go back into the gardens and among the fields." And the game started again. Oakland won the game by 4 to 1, one of the scores being a present from Jeuness.

All through the game it was a continual kick about balls and strikes and everything that a keen ballplayer can find that will furnish the semblance of an objection. The sixth was the scene of a small-sized riot. Ganley drove out a single and stole second. Kruger hit to Flood and was retired. Ganley started to steal third and make home. In leaving the vicinity of the third bag he failed to connect with the cushion and cut off about four feet to save time. It was careless of him, but Jeuness did not think so and allowed him the handicap, calling him safe at home. And then, up to the clouds for the Angels. It was warm, to say the least. Flood and Smith, who were fined by Jeuness Tuesday, joined in a vituperative duo, the theme of which was "Go Back Home to Blank, Blank, Jeuness!" Flood then ordered the team from the field and it looked as if the game would not go on. Morley ordered them back. Bluecoats started on to the field but Morley had his men in hand and the strike was called off. When the clouds had cleared Jeuness put a silver lining on just to finish it up in style and ordered Flood and Smith out of the game. Raymond went to short, Wheeler to third, Chase to second and Eager came from the bench to cover the first bag.

Oakland started in in the first inning with a run. The Angels were the next to score and brought in a lonely in the third. Neither side scored again until the sixth, when Oakland received the present. In the eighth Oakland added two more and neither side scored again. Both Newton and Schmidt pitched good ball, Newton allowing six base hits and Schmidt but five. Newton passed four men and Schmidt presented tickets to five. Both teams made errors. The Commuters three and the Angels four.

It was a game of excitement from start to time and it is said will serve to be a long farewell to non-Umpire Jeuness. The score:

RUNS AND HITS BY INNINGS.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Los Angeles	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	—1

Oakland	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	2	*	—4
Base hits	0	0	0	0	2	1	0	3	*	—6

Two-base hit—Devereaux. Sacrifice hits—J. Strieb, T. Strieb, Eager. First base on errors—Los Angeles 1, Oakland 1. First base on called balls—Off Newton 4, off Schmidt 5. Left on bases—Los Angeles 8, Oakland 9. Struck out—By Newton 7, by Schmidt 9. Double plays—Kruger to J. Strieb, Bernard to Raymond. Wild pitch—Schmidt. Time of game—2 hours. Umpire—Jeuness.

BATTLING STOPS TRAINING.

IS IN GREAT CONDITION FOR HIS BOUT WITH CANOLE TOMORROW NIGHT.

Battling Nelson has completed his training for the twenty-round contest with Martin Canole tomorrow night. The Chicago lad has been out at the beach the past three weeks and during that time he has put in some hard licks and today he is as fine in the matter of physical condition as a fighter could hope to be. His work has been marked all through with hard bouts with the gloves, during which he showed himself to be a wonderful infighter and a scrapper that resorts a great deal to aggressive tactics to wear his opponent down.

Nelson did a lot of wrestling during his long siege of training, which will accustom him to the rough work he intends to hand out to Canole when the two face each other in the ring at Woodward's Pavilion. He also did a lot of work with the medicine ball, a line of exercise every fighter that depends on aggressive tactics should use, for it adds great strength to the arms and shoulders. Nelson says the medicine ball is a great thing to reduce weight and produce strength and muscle. During his boxing bouts Nelson always selected some one that was similar to Canole in the matter of attack and defense and the way he would sail into these sparring mates was a caution. Jack Cordell, one of Nelson's sparring partners, says he is glad the work is over.

"I never had such a tough job in my life," said Cordell after he had finished his last bout with Nelson. Tomorrow Nelson will take a little fast walk for a mile or two just to keep on edge and in the afternoon he will be at Corbett's place to weigh in, after which he will retire to his room and go out to the pavilion a short while before it will be time for him to go into the ring.

Canole is in the very best of shape for the mill and expresses himself as confident that he will win the decision. He intimates that he will have a hard task with Nelson and from his talk he does not expect to win on a knock-out, but still he is full of confidence and his manager will place a big bet on him. Canole's work has been altogether different from that of Nelson's and while he has done a good bit of training, the work has been light and fast, and shadow sparring was one of the principal exercises he used to condition himself.

The light-weights will weigh in tomorrow at 3 o'clock and the weight limit is fixed at 133 pounds. Should either man weigh more he will forfeit $250.

Jim Hayward of New York and Henry Lewis are to box ten rounds as a preliminary and Frank Raphael and George Herbert will meet in a bout of the same number of rounds.

ANNUAL BANQUET AT ST. MARY'S.

ATHLETES MAKE MERRY IN ONE OF MOST SUCCESSFUL OF YEARLY NIGHTS.

St. Mary's College was the scene of a most enjoyable banquet last night and fully 150 students and invited guests gathered around the festive board to enjoy the annual "blow out." The tables and the rooms were handsomely decorated and the evening's enjoyment was one that marked success again upon every work that St. Mary's students and directors have attempted.

After two hours at the tables postpradial speeches were indulged in. Toasts by all were to the point, witty and sensible. The faculty, as is usual, came in for their share of quips at their own expense. No offense was intended nor taken. It was a harmless, hilarious and harmonious night. The college mandolin and guitar club rendered excellent music during the night's pleasures and was much appreciated. Lundy in his vocal solo received much well considered applause.

There were many speeches but they did not mar the occasion by being long strung out or dull. They were witty, short and enjoyable.

President William F. Fitzgerald of the Athletic Association gave a most comprehensive talk on the application of athletics to the betterment of the mental status. The burden of his remarks was to the effect that a healthy body is the father of a fertile brain. It was the harmless yet profitable exercise of athletics that brought a sound foundation for manhood both in college life and for the future.

Dr. J. Maher, one of the college boys' favorites, made a happy talk in his usual manner. Other friends and alumni of the college spoke briefly and interestingly. The annual banquet came to a close with each wishing the other success. Alma Mater was bidden farewell and the athletes pronounced it the best and most perfectly arranged affair ever held.

The menu was as follows: Oysters, consomme, crab salad; relishes—tongue, ham, mutton, olives, celery radishes; entrees—tenderloin steak with mushrooms and roast potatoes, chicken fricassee with peas and mashed potatoes; dessert—ice cream, bananas, strawberries, raisins, nuts, cakes, lemonade and coffee.

ORDINANCE NOT ADOPTED.

COMMITTEE PASSES RESOLUTION TO DRAW UP SEPARTE THEATER LAWS.

The Ordinance and Judiciary Committee last night passed up the theater ordinance. No definite action was taken as to the matters relating to the reconstruction of theaters which have already been built. The theater ordinance as previously drawn up was thoroughly discussed by the committee. An amendment was offered and adopted which changes the date of the operation of the ordinance from sixty to ninety days. After taking the matter up further the committee decided that nothing further could be done in the matter at present.

In the opinion of Councilman Cuvellier matters relating to the construction of theaters should not be incorporated in this ordinance. It was, according to his standpoint, the proper thing to enact a separte ordinance which should cover the regulation of the curtain and fire apparatus and the construction included in the building ordinance.

Attorney G. W. Reed, who was present representing the theaters, offered to draw up an ordinance to comply with this suggestion. Councilman Cuvellier made a motion that a resolution to this effect be adopted. The motion carried and the substance of the resolution is as follows:

"First—That a new ordinance providing for asbestos curtains, sprinklers, covering of fire walls and other protection against fire in theaters be drawn up by Mr. G. W. Reed, representing the theaters, the chairman of the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee and Fire Chief Ball.

"Second—That matters relating to the construction of theaters be referred to the commitee which has the building ordinance in hand."

DUNNING REPORTS HOLDUP.

RESIDENT OF BERKELEY DECLARES HE WAS BEATEN BY A FOOTPAD.

BERKELEY, May 19.—A strange encounter with a footpad is reported by J. W. Dunning of 1871 Carlton street. According to Dunning he was walking in the vicinity of his home at an early hour this morning when he was accosted by a masked man who demanded his money.

Instead of obeying, Dunning showed resistance with the result that he was set on by the marauder who gave him a severe beating. To bear out his assertions, Dunning exhibits a number of black and blue marks.

A Matter of Health

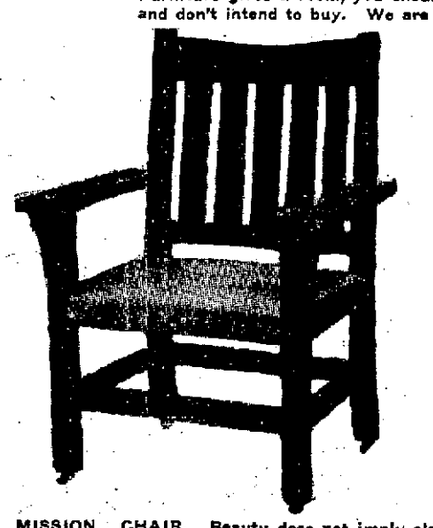

Modern scientific medicine recognizes (1) that disease is most frequently transmitted by dust and dirt, (2) that the ideal method of getting rid of disease germs is by removing them (asepsis) rather than trying to kill them (antisepsis). Fumigations attempt to destroy; the compressed air removes. The simplicity and efficiency of the method will recommend it not only for household purposes, but also when cleaning is necessary as a sanitary measure.

Flimflamming in the Name of Virtue

Senator Bard is a receptive candidate opposed, so he says, to manipulating conventions or striving in the primaries to gain an election, yet his supporters are making a great noise over the instructions given for him in Riverside county. It would be interesting to know if Senator Bard approves of the sharp practice by which a supporter of Mr. Oxnard was pledged to Bard in that county. The scheme to have the convention instruct for Bard was carefully concealed till it was sprung by the committee which had been packed for the purpose. The whole proceedings had been pursuant to a general understanding up to the thime the instruction resolution was sprung by the committee. Before anything could be done to stop it, it was adopted along with the general report of the committee, the opponents of Bard having been tricked into believing that nothing of the kind would be attempted. An agreement had been made that a general resolution commending the delegation in Congress, Senators Perkins and Bard and Congressman Daniels, should be dropped. Nothing was said in the preliminaries about instructions, and Mr. Estudillo was understood to be an Oxnard supporter. He was the selection of the machine, and was approved by the men who are doing Oxnard politics.

This is the smartest kind of smart politics. It is winning by means that have never been regarded as either fair or high-minded. Yet Mr. Bard, who poses as a man of such superior virtue that he cannot ask anybody to vote for him or campaign in his own behalf, is willing to take votes gained by rank flimflamming. The good man is willing to take all that's coming to him, and a bit more, but we suspect he likes to get it without putting himself out or letting go of his money.

One is tempted to smile at the demand of the Prohibitionists that the sale of liquor be forbidden in the Panama canal zone, it is such an ineffective way of promoting temperance. Nevertheless, it would be a good thing for those who live on the isthmus if they could be prevented from drinking alcohol. Forbidding the sale of liquor, of course, will not prevent liquor being brought in and drank, and the government is not likely to install prohibition against the will of the residents of the isthmus. The demand is therefore futile and inadmissible. However, total abstinence would mitigate the unhealthfulness of the isthmian climate. A tropical malarious climate intensifies the evils of alcohol drinking, but the Northern races will persist in carrying their practice of guzzling fiery liquids to the tropics, with the result that they fall easy victims to insanity and the diseases peculiar to the climate. Nevertheless, forbidding the sale of liquor within the canal zone will not protect the residents against themselves. The strip is only ten miles wide and liquor will be sold in plenty immediately outside—liquor of the worst at that and sold under conditions far more demoralizing than will be permitted within the canal jurisdiction.

The Los Angeles Times is mistaken in asserting that Missouri had no official representation in the Confederate Congress. George G. Vest sat in the Confederate Senate from Missouri. It is true that Missouri is a Western State geographically, but she is Southern politically and in the sympathies of her people. Missouri was a slave State and was largely settled by people from Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee and the Carolinas. She is an integral part of the Solid South, which included all the old slave States.

Nonsense About Convicts

We find this in the Fresno Republican:

"The Monday Afternoon Whist Club of Oakland is to be the guest of Mrs. Tompkins, wife of the warden of San Quentin, and a dispatch says: 'Convicts will prepare and serve the lunch, as all the house servants of the warden wear the stripes.' Won't this be novel, as the society reporter would say, and won't the sight of the poor devils in zebra attire add to the gaiety and interest of the affair! Mrs. Tompkins is such an original hostess. But how about the law that says no cruel and unusual punishment shall be inflicted upon anyone guilty of crime?"

With all due respect to our contemporary, this is rank nonsense. So far from it being a cruel punishment for convicts to be compelled to act as servants in the warden's household, those who get the jobs are mortals envied by their fellow prisoners. The work is light, the food good, the treatment kind and the prison garb modified as much as the rules will permit. There is great striving among the prisoners to see who shall act as servants in the warden's household, but Chinese, Japanese and negroes furnish most of the domestic help at the prison. If the editor of the Fresno Republican believes it is cruelty to convicts to have them wait on the warden's table he will change his mind after a little personal investigation.

The Supreme Court of Indiana has declared the new apportionment law unconstitutional and void. It is alleged that the apportionment was a gerrymander to insure the re-election of Senator Beveridge. Surely a little thing like the Constitution oughtn't to count when the political future of such a precocious statesman as Beveridge is at stake. But perhaps they have been weighing Beveridge on Fairbanks' scales.

Republicans Rejoice in the Contrast

A correspondent of the Examiner draws a sharp contrast between the Democratic convention at Santa Cruz and the Republican convention at Sacramento. He finds the accord and peace prevailing at the latter flat and stale compared to the turbulent scenes and factional fighting that characterized the Santa Cruz gathering.

Republicans will feel no shame that the contrast is so striking, nor will they regret that harmony and unity prevail in their ranks. There is no occasion to mourn that the proceedings of their convention fail to furnish lively "copy" or be characterized by the venting of private griefs and personal resentments. With dignity and calmness, and in cordially fraternal spirit, the Sacramento convention is met to express the sense and carry out the purpose of a united party. Republicans can congratulate themselves that it is not a Chevy Chase where rival factions meet to fight out grudges.

There is no reason why Republicans should fight among themselves. They are united in support of a single candidate whose personality and record appeal to their pride, patriotism and party loyalty; they are in accord on the general features of a broad national policy that has brought the blessings of peace and prosperity at home and given the nation prestige and influence abroad. There is no division as to the salient principles of the party nor contention over rival candidates. It is true that a peaceful and harmonious gathering is not so exciting as a scrapping match between factions, but it augurs more for success at the polls and for the continuance of the policies which have made the Republic prosperous and powerful beyond the dreams of the most optimistic a dozen years ago.

This gives added significance to the contrast between the Sacramento and Santa Cruz conventions. While the contrast is gratifying to Republicans, it should be painful if it is not to Democrats.

Governor Peabody Rebuked

There is significance in the fact that Denver has gone Democratic by 5000 majority. At the last election the Republicans carried the city by a large majority. Denver is normally a Republican city and there is nothing in general conditions to warrant this sudden and enormous change in the politics of the city. The reason must be looked for in some special local condition. It can be found in the manner in which Governor Peabody has dealt with the strike in the Cripple Creek country. A Democrat has been elected Mayor of Denver as a direct rebuke to the Governor for the highhanded and foolish actions of the military in the strike region. Governor Peabody is not rebuked for maintaining law and order nor can the result of the election be taken as an expression of sympathy with the lawlessness of strikers. It is an emphatic disapproval of the methods used in dealing with strikers by vain, light-headed militia officers who exhibited an extraordinary disregard for the ordinary rights guaranteed the citizen by the Federal and State Constitutions. Martial law was proclaimed within a prescribed district and administered in the most drastic and offensive manner possible. The courts were insulted, the local constabulary treated as criminals, and free speech suppressed with a violence so brutal and summary that it smacked more of Russia than America. Business and professional men were thrown into jail without warrant and denied appeal to the courts merely for criticizing the measures adopted by the officers in command. Worse still, men were arrested by soldiers outside the district under martial law for merely speaking disrespectfully of the commander of the militia. Newspapers were suppressed and the editors jailed. Attorneys employed to defend strikers under arrest were summarily imprisoned. Men were seized and deported merely because their talk was distasteful to military officers. This was not enforcing law and order; it was the destruction of civil liberty. It involved the overthrow of all the constitutional safeguards of society and the abrogation of all the legal rights that hedge about the citizen. In other words, the remedy was worse than the disease. Hence the citizens of Denver have expressed an emphatic disapproval of it. There is a lesson and a warning in the vote that should sober and admonish those who would use the military power, not to enforce law and order, but to break strikes by force and crush unions with the strong arm of illegal violence.

THE BENEFIT OF YAWNING

A good, wide, open-mouthed yawn is a splendid thing for the whole body. A yawn is nature's demand for rest. Some people think they only yawn because they are sleepy. But this is not so. You yawn because you are tired. You may be sleepy also, but that is not the real cause of your yawning. You are sleepy because you are tired, and you yawn because you are tired.

Whenever you feel like yawning, just yawn. Don't try to suppress it because you think it is impolite to yawn. Put your hand over your mouth if you want to, but let the yawn come. And if you are where you can stretch at the same time that you yawn, just stretch and yawn. This is nature's way of stretching and relaxing the muscles.

Don't be afraid to open the mouth wide and yawn and stretch whenever you feel like it. Indeed, if you are very tired but do not feel like yawning, there is nothing that will rest you so quickly as to sit on a straight-back chair and lifting the feet from the floor push them out in front of you as far as possible, stretch the arms, push the head back, open the mouth wide and make yourself yawn.

Those tense nerves will relax, the contracted muscles will stretch, and the whole body will be rested. Do this two or three times when you are tired and see what it will do for you.—Health Culture.

Hints for the Ladies.

In the short-backed sailor shape is shown a hat of rough yellowish straw, trimmed with a mass of pink roses and purple lilacs.

Dimities with white grounds and dainty flower effects are selling for 12½ cents a yard and are very pretty for dresses for small folks.

One of the prettiest of wall papers shown has a heavy striped cream ground with bunches of pale purple lilacs scattered over its creamy surface.

Big comfortable morris chairs, writing desks, lounges and even picture frames are to be had in wicker and are especially dainty for summer cottages.

From 10 cents to 25 cents will purchase a lot of odd-sized frames in black oak that come useful to housewives in framing small pictures and engravings.

Clear glass candlesticks are among the pretty things in the shops. They come in very clear pressed glass with a tall column design on a square base.

Wicker furniture upholstered in cretonne in the various dainty colors used for summer bedrooms is to be had in the shops and is shown in all styles and shapes.

Piazza "5 o'clocks" with leaves at the end and an under shelf are just the thing for the summer porch afternoon tea gathering and come in unpainted wicker.

One of the new picture hats is made of lace in a yellowish tint in the big floppy style and is trimmed with a wreath of red roses about the crown and a second row underneath the brim.

For $25 one can purchase the daintiest of white dotted Swiss gowns, all trimmed with lace and ruffles. The modish full skirt and blouse waist with the long fichu effect are features of these gowns.

For the woman who cannot afford cut-glass there are some really pretty glass candelabra offered in the shops for $4 and $5 each. These are the glass candlesticks having the glass pendants and they give a remarkably pretty effect when lighted amid bowls of flowers and dainty china.

Waists of dotted Swiss are predicted as the midsummer favorites.

Gold bead necklaces as accessories for dressy toilets are a fad of the moment.

The inverted plait-back skirt is much better style this season than the habit back.

Clusters of red roses are the fashionable decorations for white lace and chiffon toques.

Dimities are perennial favorite for children's wear and no other material is so practical.

The idea of the moment is to put a pretty ribbon around the neck, topped with a dainty ruche.

The tendency toward fancy effects in tailor gowns grows more marked as the season advances.

Six to ten inch ribbons, crushed in to about four inches, are used for the girdles as a fashionable just now.

Pale biscuit-colored overgaiters worn over patent leather ties are one of Dame Fashion's whims just now.

Printed organdy will be used to create some of the most charming of the gauzy gowns for warm weather wear.

Except for a slight tendency to a higher bust there is no marked change in this year's corset shapes from last year.

A REPUTATION.

HOW IT WAS MADE AND RETAINED IN OAKLAND.

A good reputation is not easily earned, and it is only by hard consistent work among our citizens that Doan's Kidney Pills won their way to the proud distinction attained in this locality. The public endorsement of scores of Oakland residents has rendered invaluable service to the community. Read what this citizen says:

Walter J. Plummer of 1325 Versailles avenue, Alameda, jeweler in the employ of Geo. R. Moss & Co., says: "If the contraction of a cold which settled across the small of my back was not the primary cause of the aching in that part of my anatomy I knew positively that when I caught a cold aggravation of the trouble was apparent. I have persistently and consistently tried medicines when these attacks were at their height but I met with very indifferent success. From reading an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills in a newspaper I was induced to go to a drug store for a box. Relief followed the treatment in a few days and since I stopped using the pills there has not been a sign of a recurrence."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

A Woman's Politics

Man is always doing politics, and he is always upbraiding woman for following his example. There is one place, however, where a woman can do something politic for which she will not be upbraided. It is in a kitchen. Her cranky political husband can be won over on every occasion by a gas stove.

You see, it will help to keep the house clean; it will insure well-cooked meals on time; it will result in smaller expenses for the household, it will keep you in such a sweet temper that the house will appear to be full of sunshine all the time. If this is not enough to induce you to sell the old, cracked, unreliable coal stove that goes with the wind, to an old junk man, then your case is indeed hopeless.

WHAT THE LODGES ARE DOING.

ENTERTAINMENTS PLANNED BY MANY OF THE LOCAL ORDERS.

The twentieth anniversary of Oakland Lodge No. 103 K. of P., took place last Thursday and was one of the most enjoyable events in the history of the organization. The lodge-room was crowded with members and their children who enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content. The committee on entertainment deserves the thanks of the lodge for the fine program furnished for the entertainment of its guests. The following features were rendered: Music by Brother Merrit's orchestra; remarks, by Past Chancelor South who instituted Oakland Lodge twenty years ago; song by Mrs. Childs, which was very well rendered; recitation by Brother Harrold Lancaster; piano selection, Miss Frandson; blackface sketch by Mr. Howes; song by Baby Enoz and a clever skit rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Bowers.

The banquet-room was then opened and while all were feasting to their hearts' content, the floor was cleared for the dancers who enjoyed themselves until midnight.

All will long remember the twentieth anniversary of Oakland Lodge.

Oakland Lodge will confer the Esquire Rank Thursday, May 19th. All visitors will receive a knightly greeting.

The delegates from Oakland Lodge to Bakersfield seem to be enjoying themselves judging from reports received from them.

Next Monday officers for the coming term will be nominated and the members, especially the Third Degree Team are requested to be on hand at 8 p. m. sharp.

The new paraphernalia has arrived.

OAKLAND HIVE NO. 14.

Friday evening, May 27th an open meeting will be held at Hamilton Hall, Thirteenth and Clay streets, under the auspices of the Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees of Oakland, at which time Mr. Edward L. Young, great record keeper of Ohio and editor of the Bee Hive, the official paper of the Knights of the Maccabees, will speak of Maccabee work. Those who have heard Mr. Young assure us that he will interest all who attend.

Mr. Young will be accompanied by the Rev. E. T. Hageman, the Maccabee lecturer of the State of Ohio. It is hoped that he will also be able to hear from Mr. Hagemar.

Tomorrow evening the guards will drill in the lodge room. Preparations for their entertainment and dance to be given on June 3d are progressing rapidly.

After the review a short meeting will be held by the members of the funeral benefit fund.

A meeting of all commanders and past commanders of San Francisco, Oakland and vicinity will be held at Pioneer Hall on Tuesday, May 24th at 2:30 p. m. for the purpose of deciding the advisability of forming a "Past Commanders' Association" of this section of the State. The southern part of the State has a most flourishing organization of this kind and it is sincerely hoped that all ladies of Oakland Hive, who are eligible to membership, will attend the meeting on the 24th.

DAUGHTERS OF ST GEORGE.

Tuesday evening Golden Gate Lodge No. 78, enjoyed a banquet held in their lodge rooms, which were tastefully decorated for the occasion with the American and British flags and a wealth of roses.

The supper was excellent and every body in the best of humor to enjoy the musical exercises and speeches which followed.

On next Tuesday evening this lodge will give one of their popular whist parties at Gier's Hall, Fourteenth street. A good time is assured to all who attend.

The programme will consist of vocal music and recitations. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the club's treasury. At the last business meeting it was decided to take charge of the decoration of Hamilton Hall for the Prohibition State Convention which will meet on the 26th inst. The ladies also offered their services to the committee on general arrangements to act upon reception or other committees as may be desired to make the coming State Convention a great success.

The Women's Prohibition Club is an auxiliary to the Prohibition party, and the members are enthusiastic in co-operating with their brothers to welcome this first State Convention since their organization.

Light refreshments will be served.

HARBOR LODGE

At a regular meeting of Harbor Lodge, No. 263 I. O. O. F. held on Wednesday evening. The Initiatory Degree of Odd Fellowship was conferred upon two candidates. Brother members please take notice that the Grand Lodge representatives will make their report at our next meeting.

OAK LEAF LODGE.

There was a very good attendance at the regular meeting of Oak Leaf Lodge on Monday evening. Two applications for membership were received and referred to the committee on investigation; the aim of the members of Oak Leaf Lodge is to make the best showing in the increase of membership in the order during the present term, and they will endeavor to initiate one or more members on every meeting night.

The annual election of officers will be held on May 30, partial nominations were made Monday evening; nominations will be closed on next Monday night and it is expected that there will be several aspirants for each of the offices.

The committee having in charge the care of sick members reported that many of them were on the road to health and that it was made evident to the committee in their visits to the brethren under their care that the fraternal work performed by the A. O. U. W. is responsible for the growth and advancement of the order.

A report was also received from the committee on reception of grand lodge officers, stating that the affair was successful in every way, and that a large share of the credit was due to the sisters of Ivy Lodge No. 4, Degree of Honor, for having so kindly assisted in the preparation of the banquet and taking charge of the decorations.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

The work of the entertainment committee is progressing nicely for the whist tournament to be given by Oakland Camp, No. 94, on the evening of June 6th, for the benefit of the sick Woodmen. There will be a great many prizes distributed to the score winners. The committee will arrange for about one hundred tables, so those who intend to be present must be early so as to be sure and secure seats.

The ladies' night entertainment given by this camp last Monday evening was well attended and the program was above the ordinary. Rev. E. E. Baker, of the First Presbyterian Church, delivered an address on "Fraternalism" and the Neighbors present were more than pleased with this address and hope that in the near future to again listen to remarks by our worthy Neighbor.

Oakland Camp degree team and officers last night visited Cherry Camp, No. 184 of San Leandro. A large class of candidates were initiated. The exercises will be held either in some church or on the Green at the cemetery. The graves of all deceased Neighbors of Woodcraft will be decorated on that day and two or more monuments erected over the graves of deceased members will be unveiled.

Saturday evening, May 28, the circle will hold an election of officers for the ensuing year.

The Neighbors are earnestly requested to be present on both occasions, as business of great importance will be brought before the circle, which will be of interest to all Neighbors.

The close of the seventh anniversary campaign is drawing near and those desiring to bring in their friends at reduced rates will have to secure their applications before the close of the month of June. Initiation of candidates will take place every Saturday evening for the next two months as strangers are being received at every meeting.

WILL INVESTIGATE.

Carpenters' Union, No. 36, initiated four new members at their meeting last night. Pending an investigation of the condition of affairs at the Fort Bragg strike the weekly payment of $10 to the strikers will be suspended. It is reported that the men are all working at other employment and do not need the money. The District Council of Carpenters of San Francisco will investigate the matter.

CONCERNING SANTA FE STRIKE.

The local Machinists' Union has given consideration to the strike of the machinists on the Santa Fe road, and negotiations are under way for a conference with the company's officers. The third vice-president of the International Union, W. D. Buckalew is expected to arrive in this State in a few days and will represent the striking workmen at the conference. The intention is to request an agreement from the Santa Fe Company, similar to that recently signed by the Southern Pacific Company and the Machinists' Union. If this is done it is expected that it will be the means of doing away with the friction between the men and the foremen of the shops.

The union charges the foremen with taking advantage of the "open shop" clause, and discriminating against the union, and its officers in particular; this being shown especially, it is claimed, by discharge in San Bernardino recently of most of the men who were officers in the union. A further assertion is made to the effect that the company had maintained sixty machinists on Catalina Island, in anticipation of difficulties, and that when the union men went out to enforce the reinstatment of their officers, these men who had been held in reserve were brought to San Bernardino. It is, however, stated that out of the entire number only twenty-eight would work.

The strike, since its start, has seriously affected the whole system, and at Point Richmond a number of boilermakers and all the machinists have ceased work. The local union levied an assessment for the strikers' benefit.

LATHERS ADOPT RESOLUTIONS.

The local union of lathers, at their meeting last night, passed resolutions to the effect that all members attend the funeral of their deceased brother, M. Madden, under penalty of $5 for non-attendance. The funeral will be held from the church at Fortieth and Grove streets and the residence of deceased is 1065 Summer street, Oakland. A special car of the Oakland Transit Company will be on hand to take the members to their destination. Interment will be at Mountain View Cemetery. The committee appointed to draw up suitable resolutions were Messrs. Burke and Bowen.

It was voted to pay all assessments to date of the butchers.

Official badges were procured, which are of excellent design and workmanship.

Amendments of the State Building Trades' Council were adopted by unanimous vote. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and every member was present.

LINEMEN'S MEETING.

Owing to the fact that two members, F. Smith and Chas. Verdon, were leaving for St. Louis, the meeting of the Lineman's Union was adjourned at an early hour last evening, in order that the members might see them off.

The next meeting night is when officers will be nominated.

The sum of $100 was realized from the benefit given at Peck's Theater some weeks ago.

A BIG ATTRACTION.

One of the greatest attractions at the entertainment of the Cooks and Waiters' next Saturday night at Forester's Hall will be Dr. Foran, the magician and illusionist, who will introduce a number of mystical problems and magical illusions. Dr. Foran is one of the best known wonder workers on the lyceum stage and on the night in question, by special request, he will present a series of experiments in magnetic phenomena, as performed by Annie Abbot, the human magnet and by Lulu Hurst, the Georgia wonder.

Herrmann Hollander will be floor manager of the ball, which follows the entertainment.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. BERKELEY SUBURBAN NEWS UNIVERSITY

GREAT HEGIRA OF STUDENTS FROM COLLEGE TOWN.

Hundreds of University of California Folk are Leaving for Their Annual Vacations.

BERKELEY, May 19.—With bag and baggage, Lares and Penates, two thousand and more college students, now that Commencement days are over, are hastening away for the country—some for the cool streams of the mountains, others for the warm sands of the seashore and still others for the fruit-laden ranch. Everyone is going away, somewhere, somehow, and Berkeley will soon become almost a deserted town until the opening of the Summer School at the State University.

Most of the students are returning to their homes or are going out merely for the summer outing and perhaps to earn pocket money for next year, but many of the members of the class just graduated are going out for good into the world. While others are resting, they will be working, making a practical use of their college education.

This hegira of students is especially noticeable among the members of the college fraternities. Nearly all of the fraternity men come from the interior towns of the State and some even from Nevada, Oregon and Washington, and they return to their homes as soon as the college festivities close. In a few days, the fraternity houses will be closed for the summer.

The following list contains the names of many of those who are leaving:

BERKELEY SCHOOL BOARD FACES DEFICIT.

Town Auditor M. L. Hanscom Presents An Interesting Estimate That is Called for By Directors.

BERKELEY, May 19.—The movement on the part of the teachers of Berkeley to secure an increase of salary led the Board of Education to request from Town Auditor M. L. Hanscom a statement of the finances of the department and an estimate of the resources and income for the next fiscal year. His report, given below, shows that on the first of July next there will be a net overdraft upon the total resources of the grammar and primary department of $9000 in round numbers. The amount of expenses to be paid, $12,000 will be for teachers' salaries for May and June. As, however, these can be met by the July apportionment from the State, there will be more than ample funds with which to liquidate all indebtedness of the fiscal year about to close.

These figures were made to compare with the condition existing a year ago and indicate that the Board has fallen behind in its grammar and primary school funds about $10,000, as there was on hand on the first of July, 1903, $1,484.36 instead of the estimated deficit presented in the auditor's report.

The auditor's estimate for the coming fiscal year is based upon the increase of census children, the probable increase of the assessment rolls of the town funds as was made for the present year.

Auditor Hanscom estimates that the increase of expenses will be due wholly to the additional teachers required as during the past year the cost of street improvements and insurance was abnormal and will be much less in the year to come as the other expenses will be greater than they have been during 1903-4.

The figures indicate therefore that the estimated present deficit at July 1 will during the next twelve months, be very largely wiped out under prevailing conditions. As, however, the High School funds are in so much better condition this year than last an additional relief to the grammar and primary school funds may be secured by apportioning to the former a greater and to the latter a smaller percentage of the town taxes. With predential management, therefore, the Board ought to be able to put the department into an excellent position within the next year or two so far as the maintenance of the schools is concerned.

The following is the full report made by Auritor Hanscom to the Board:

Balances, May 17, 1904, County fund, $4,147.25; Town fund, $3,850.37; State fund, $10.28; Special fund, $853.34; Library fund, $23.79; total, $8,885.33. MINES ARE FLOATING AT LARGE.

CHICAGO, May 19.—A special to the Daily News from Chefoo says:

While cruising off Dalny this morning the Daily News' despatch boat Fawan was stopped and examined by the Japanese cruiser Kasagi. The Japanese officers informed us that Russian destroyers had escaped from Port Arthur and are still at large. They stated that the Russians are using Chinese junks to place mines in the path of the Japanese fleet patrolling the peninsula coast. They also said that they had sunk a tug and several junks that were discovered placing mines.

In consequence of this promiscuous mining, the Japanese fleet is moving to a greater distance off the coast and all other navigation in those waters is suspended. There are indications that the Japanese destroyers have laid many mines outside Port Arthur, hoping to catch the Russian destroyers in the attempt to return to Port Arthur. Many of these mines have been improperly anchored and are adrift. They are reported to be all over the gulf. The Fawan passed eight and one Chinese junk picked up 13.

CONSTABLE SAYS IT IS LIBEL.

Constable Bert Hempsted has sworn has a warrant for the arrest of Attorney J. H. Boyer of San Francisco on the charge of criminal libel. The alleged libel is declared to have been contained in a letter written by Boyer to Justice of the Peace Quinn, in which the attorney accuses Hempsted with stealing $150 of his client's money.

"San Francisco, Cal., April 20, 1904.—J. G. Quinn, Esq., Oakland, Cal.—Dear Sir: You told me two weeks ago that you would render your decision in the two cases against Hempstead for stealing Ligda's money a week ago Monday.

"I have called several times, but failed to find you in, and your record shows no entry of judgment.

"Kindly let me know by return mail what your decision is and the date of its rendition, and oblige. yours very truly, J. H. BOYER."

ITALIANS TO BE KODAKED.

TO IDENTIFY SCAVENGERS BY THE AID OF PHOTOGRAPHIC REPRODUCTION.

To make the injunction proceedings brought by the Pacific Incinerating Company effective against the scavengers, it has been found necessary to photograph the various individuals on whom the legal papers were served, so that the right person might be picked out. The photography will play the same part in the proceedings as it does in the Chinese deportation cases.

It appears that officers of the law who served the summons in the injunction proceedings were unable to state positively in court whether it was Angelo Legoria or Luigi Giavoni who had been served. This, of course, rendered the injunction non-operative until it could be established that the papers had been served on the proper person.

That there might not be any more confusion it was deemed to be expedient to have the photograph of the individual served attached to the name for purposes of identification. By this means it is hoped to keep the bewildering array of names borne by the sons of Italy in an orderly way. This is the first time in the history of local jurisprudence that this means of identification has been resorted to save in case of the Chinese.

FAKE PICTURE OF PRESIDENT.

MOVING PICTURE MACHINE MAN DOES A CLEVER TRICK.

WASHINGTON, May 19. — The Washington police are investigating an incident which occurred in the plaza of the Capitol today, in which an attempt was made, before a moving picture machine, to impersonate President Roosevelt giving assistance to a pretended negro in distress.

A moving picture machine had been placed where it could command the scene and a man made up as negro approached and when directly in front of the statue of George Washington he fell to the pavement.

A man who bore a striking resemblance to the President was in a carriage nearby and he, with the aid of a negro coachman, who wore a livery the counterpart of the White House livery, tenderly lifted the pretended negro to the fictitious Presidential carriage.

The man simulating the President then tipped his hat, offered the negro a cigar and ordered the carriage to drive on. The incident was witnessed by a number of people, including two Capitol policemen.

ANNUAL LUNCHEON OF ALUMNI.

GOVERNOR PARDEE ADDRESSES GRADUATES AT THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

BERKELEY, May 19.—Some five hundred members of the Alumni Association of the University of California enjoyed an elaborate luncheon in Hearst Hall yesterday immediately following the commencement exercises in the Greek Theatre. A sumptuous repast was spread on prettily arranged tables on the upper floor of the building and at these tables were seated the graduates of the University by classes. The new members of the association who became alumni at the close of the graduation exercises yesterday, were the special guests and sat at tables especially provided for them at one end of the hall. Mrs. May L. Cheney, secretary of the association and Professor Edwin Booth, the president are responsible for a large part of the success of the luncheon and reunion of the college people.

At the end of the luncheon Professor Booth assumed the duties of toastmaster and introduced the various speakers, who were nearly all members of the famous class of '79 who celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary at the home of Governor George C. Pardee in Sacramento last week. The first speaker introduced was Governor Pardee, himself, and in a few happy words he put the large audience in an extremely happy mood. He said in part:

"I am here today as the youngest member of the youngest class that ever graduated from the University of California. I believe that a young man is youngest at 25 and as our class has just celebrated its twenty-fifth birthday we are certainly the youngest class. Well, I am glad to assume this exalted position as the youngest member of this famous class and I am glad to be with you today. As President Wheeler would say, it is good to be here—for when you leave the old college on graduation day you feel as if something has gone out of your life that cannot be placed and you are glad to come back again and visit the old familiar places. As many of us as have gathered here of the class of '79 have been visiting again the places frequented in our undergraduate days. We went to old North Hall steps and to the hills in back of the campus and to the other places dear to the student's heart. And as we visited once again these scenes is seemed as if the twenty-five years that have passed away were as twenty-five minutes and that we were sophomores once again.

"Well, what more do you expect the youngest graduate of this class of '79 to say?—what more can be said? We are proud of our university and by our presence here today we show our love for this university and for our class."

Others who spoke were Professor Bernard Moses and Rev. Davis of St. Louis, who are members of the class of '79. President Wheeler said a few words on behalf of the University and J. E. Roadhouse spoke for the class of '04. Judge John R. Aitken of San Francisco was the last speaker. He chose for his theme the Affiliated Colleges of San Francisco.

CALL ON THE UNIVERSITY TO FIGHT HOPPERS.

Insect Plague is Reported From the Southern Part of the State—Professor Woodworth's Views.

BERKELEY, May 19.—That crops to the value of hundreds of dollars may be saved at Turlock, near Modesto, the agricultural department of the University of California has been called on to combat a threatening plague of grasshoppers.

In response to the call from the farmers of Turlock, Professor C. W. Woodworth and a staff of assistants, including J. S. Hunter, assistant in the department of entymology, departed at once for the smitten district and began the work of extermination. Vast areas of land in a district nine miles in extent and no less than two miles in width at its narrowest point is being burned over in the hope of killing the young hoppers and destroying the eggs in the breeding places. Today Professor Woodworth returned from the field of action and announces that the work is meeting with favorable results. In the case the fire method does not achieve the desired result, however, he says that various other methods will be tried to rid the district of the destructive pests.

In discussing the efforts made to exterminate the hoppers, Professor Woodworth said today.

"At present we are confining ourselves to the method of uncultivated fields, where the grasshoppers breed and so far we seem to be having a fair measure of success. So serious has the plague of the grasshoppers become, however, that we will not rest until we have succeeded in exterminating them, for either the hoppers must go or the farmers will have to desert their farms and cease further attempt to raise crops in the afflicted district.

"Last year the grasshoppers caused so much devastation that most of the farmers of the district were ready to give up in despair. The land around Turlock has been recently settled by Swedish colonists and they planted their land last year with young fruit trees, but the trees no sooner began to grow than the grasshoppers arose in great swarms and ate them to the ground. All the green crops were destroyed in this way and the colonists were disheartened.

"This year the grasshoppers have begun to appear several weeks earlier than usual and realizing that the pest must be exterminated at all costs we have begun at the urgent request of the colonists a systematic campaign. We are going to exhaust every means in our power to kill off the destructive insects for, unless some effective work is done, the colony will very likely prove a failure. At least this seems to be the prevailing opinion among the farmers who are awaiting anxiously the results of our campaign."

BANKER DEAD.

NEW YORK, May 19.—John W. Lounsbury, vice president of the First National Bank of Portchester and a director in half a dozen other financial institutions in Westchester county, is dead. He started on his business career as a grocery boy, and although rated as a millionaire, continued to own a grocery store in Portchester up to the time of his death.

FORMER SOLDIERS ORGANIZE.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS NOW HAVE A CLUB IN BERKELEY.

BERKELEY, May 19.—The young men of the city who enlisted for the Spanish-American war have formed a Spanish War Veteran Club. The following, permanent officers of the organization have been elected:

Captain, August Vollmer, first lieutenant, B. P. Baker; second lieutenant, W. G. Needham; first sergeant, A. Wilde; quartermaster sergeant, W. G. Dandy; commissary sergeant, Payson Riggs.

The charter of the new organization will be closed at a meeting to be held next Monday night. It is the intention of the veterans to secure clubrooms and make their society one of the leading social organizations of the city.

SAYS AMERICANS ARE DEGENERATING.

CHICAGO, May 19.—That the American people as a whole are morally degenerating is the opinion of Dr. Chas. Cuthbert Hall, president of Union Theological Seminary, New York, who has made a brief address before the members and friends of the Religious Educational Association at the Art Institute.

Dr. Hall is president of the association, which now has 2000 members in various parts of the country.

"We all rejoice in the remarkable growth and the excellent features of American civilization," said he, "and we are pleased at the relatively good state of the common morality of the people, but a deeper examination of the social side of our American life reveals a situation that causes anything but satisfaction. It is a matter of consternation and deep concern to us that the moral standard of American life is deteriorating. In the hustle and bustle of every day activity we have astonished the world, but, morally, we are rapidly going astern—so rapidly that one is dumbfounded at the contrast after a visit to some of the countries of the old world.

"I am an optimist, through and through, but I am not a stone blind optimist. I feel and I know from observation that religion has little if any part in our American civilization today. This is a lamentable state of affairs and it behooves each and all of us to do all we can to help stem this tide of indifference. Our home life is not what it should be, and it is not to be wondered at, when we realize the general apathy of the people as regards their spiritual welfare."

STAYS WITH THE OLD WAY.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Mayor McClellan's office is being haunted by men with automatic devices to aid him in signing 37,000 bonds of the city, recently sold. Every bond requires the Mayor's signature and that official had no sooner begun the great task of signing his name $7,000 times than scores of inventors appeared with devices to help things along. The Mayor tried a few but found them of little assistance and is proceeding with the job in small allotments.

SAY THAT JAPAN LOST TWO SHIPS,

CHE FOO, May 19, 3 P. M.—People just arrived here from Dalny have reported to the Russian Consul that the Japanese battleship Shikishima sank in two minutes after contact with the submarine mine and that there was no time to save the crew. The accident happened, it is said, within sight of Port Arthur.

The battleship Fuji, not the cruiser Asama, which struck the mine on the port bow, had a heavy list and was also down by the bow, but was righted and went off in tow of the other cruisers. It is thought impossible, however, that she could reach port.

The rumor at Dalny, to the effect that the Asama had sank in Kerr Bay, probably refers to the sinking of the steel cruiser Miyaka, which took place there recently by coming in contact with a submarine mine.

The Russian Consul personally had a telegram from Dalny saying that it is rumored there that two Japanese battleships had been sunk off Port Arthur.

Refugees coming in say that the town received no damage from the bombardment and that considerable land fighting is going on to the north of Dalny.

EMPEROR TALKS TO TROOPS.

KREMENCHUG, Government of Poltava, Russia, May 18.—During his review of the forces bound for the Far East, today the Emperor, addressing the troops, said:

"I am certain, in memory of the fight, that the qualities of the regiment celebrated for its defense of the Shipka pass will be abundantly realized in the campaign on which they are now embarking. In the present difficult and dangerous campaign I feel certain you will overcome the enemy and return safely to your native homes."

Above all things don't become a drunkard; use whiskey moderately and use the best. Jesse Moore "AA" is the purest and best.

MISS M'ELRATH IS ENGAGED.

POPULAR GIRL WILL WED DR. BENJAMIN BAKEWELL.

Today Mr and Mrs J E McElrath announce the engagement of their daughter Bertha to Dr Benjamin Bakewell

On account of the prominence of both families and because both of the young people are very popular in social circles it is one of the notable engagements of the year

Dr Benjamin Bakewell is the eldest son of Rev and Mrs John Bakewell of this city He is a graduate of the University of California and belonged to the Beta Fraternity the one in which the young men have a way of winning distinction when they leave college

After completing his university work Dr Bakewell took a course in medicine and is now a practicing physician with good prospects and rapidly achieving success in his chosen profession

The Rev Mr Bakewell was pastor for a long time of Trinity Episcopal Church in this city the picturesque church on Telegraph avenue He presided over the church without any salary simply for love of his work

The Bakewell home has stood for much along higher lines and all the young men of the home are college men and among the most popular of the young society men on both sides of the bay

They are welcome everywhere and are met a great deal in society but they are the kind of young men who know how to work and to carve out for themselves places in the business and professional worlds

The McElrath home at Alden represents really a historic home and always a most hospitable one In the old days the Aldens owned all the land about and Mrs McElrath's childhood days were passed in the same surroundings as those of her daughters It is one of the most notable homes in the city

The young girls of the family are always entertaining their friends and one meets them everywhere in the social world for they are exceedingly popular girls the kind of girls that win the sincere affection of friends

Miss Bertha McElrath is a charming type of the American girl She has been most intelligently educated adding to the usual training a course of nursing as well She is one of the girls very charming and fascinating in a social way ready to do her part in the society world but with a training also which fits her to be a very happy home keeper

The McElraths have probably as large a circle of friends as any family in the city The family is originally from Tennessee and the McElraths have an acquaintance among the most exclusive Southern sets on the coast

The announcement of the engagement is calling out happy congratulations from a large circle of friends No date has yet been announced for the wedding, but it will probably be one of the notable weddings of the coming season

Twenty-five Dollars

TOWARD THE PURCHASE PRICE OF ANY PIANO IN STOCK.

NOTE—We agree to accept this coupon exactly the same as cash on any piano in this sale, and monthly or weekly payments after the balance may be arranged for to suit the convenience of the buyer. Delivery of the instrument will be made immediately or at such time in the future.

Pommer-Eilers Music Company

In opening our fine new store in Oakland we wish to determine at once as to which is the best possible method of finding buyers. The old, time-worn method of solicitors and agents is obsolete with us, because it is too expensive and undignified.

We have decided, therefore, upon this introductory sale, and in order to crowd a record-breaking volume of business into the first two weeks' business, we are offering choice of one hundred and fifty-four fine new pianos at wholesale cost

But this is not all.

We publish here an advertising coupon. It is worth exactly $25 cash. If you live in Alameda county or at any shipping point convenient to Oakland, cut out the coupon and take or send it at once to the Pommer-Eilers' Introductory Sale, which is now in progress in our new store which we are opening in the new Bacon Block. The coupon will be accepted exactly the same as $25 in gold coin, toward payment of any Kimball, or Hazelton, or Decker or Hallet & Davis, or any other of altogether thirty different highest class American makes of pianos.

During this introductory Sale we propose to sell to retail buyers of Oakland and its tributary field one hundred and fifty-four fine, highest grade, brand new pianos, amounting to $38,500, at actual wholesale cost, with freight added, which means to you a saving of at least one-half lower than these or other same grade of instruments regularly retail for in Oakland or any other city.

Nor is it necessary to pay all cash.
